Title: The God That Goes Before Us

Scripture: Psalm 68:1–6

Speaker: Justin Hamm

What would change about the way you faced tomorrow if you truly believed God was already there?

Psalm 68:1–6 ESV

God shall arise, his enemies shall be scattered; and those who hate him shall flee before him! 2 As smoke is driven away, so you shall drive them away; as wax melts before fire, so the wicked shall perish before God! 3 But the righteous shall be glad; they shall exult before God; they shall be jubilant with joy! 4 Sing to God, sing praises to his name; lift up a song to him who rides through the deserts; his name is the Lord; exult before him! 5 Father of the fatherless and protector of widows is God in his holy habitation. 6 God settles the solitary in a home; he leads out the prisoners to prosperity, but the rebellious dwell in a parched land.

What would change about the way you faced tomorrow if you truly believed God was already there?

Remember who God has always been.

1. God Goes Before His People

God never asks His people to walk into tomorrow alone.

2. Joy Is Found in God's Presence

Joy is rooted in God's presence, not perfect circumstances.

3. The Heart of God

God's greatness moves Him toward the vulnerable.

God Gives the Lonely a Home

The church is not simply a gathering. It is a family.

The Gospel

Because of Christ, we call God 'Father.'

Take Home

Not because we know tomorrow, but because we know the One who goes before us.
