

Series: Show me your ways

Sermon: God is good

Scripture: Psalm 139:19-24

Speaker: Johnny Benz

Discussion Questions:

1. What were some things that stood out to you from this past week's sermon?
2. If you could summarize the basic message from this past week's sermon, what was it?
3. Share: Who do you know in your life who has used their strength for you or against you?
4. How have you typically applied imprecatory sections like the one in Psalm 139:19-22?
5. Have you ever loved something so much that it has led you to despise something that falls short of that?
6. What are some evils that you could honestly say that you hate?
7. Application: What are some evils that you tolerate that you probably should hate?
8. How does David's prayer at the end of Psalm 139 connect with the rest of the psalm?
9. Would you hesitate to ask God to examine your heart and reveal it to you? Why or why not?
10. Why do some Christians neglect God's evaluation of them?
11. What good or evil has God affirmed or challenged in you over the past few weeks?
12. How aware are you of the sin in your life? How does awareness of personal sin relate to love?
13. Application: Pray the prayer at the end of Psalm 139 again this week and journal which things God reveals to you. Be prepared to share some of these the next time you meet.
