

Series: Anchors: convictions to counter the dangerous drift.

Speaker: Pastor Mike Bryant

Scripture: Romans 13:12-15:7

Sermon: Unity Amid Diversity

Dig Deeper:

What are some guardrails against temptation?

What are your personal guardrails against of temptation?

Why is gluttony considered a sin?

How does Paul define the person who is “weak in faith”?

What does it mean to accept each other “without judging”? How does the Bible define this differently from the world?

What is the difference between a sinful judgment and sober assessment?

What is the difference between biblical convictions and personal convictions?

Why does the person with weak faith have a problem with the gray areas of life?

What are some ways that a person’s freedom can hinder another brother or sister’s faith?

What is the difference between a loving people pleaser and a selfish people pleaser?

Personal Application:

What are your biggest sources of temptation right now? What are some guardrails you need to put up against temptation?

If you have an issue with lust, download an accountability software to help you fight the temptation.

What kind of people do you find yourself prone to judge? Ask the Lord to humble you and soften your heart towards that person.

What are some freedoms you may currently have that you may need to lay down for a particular brother or sister in your life?

Are you more prone to fight for your rights or lay them down in love for another? If you prioritize rights over love, ask for the Lord to change your heart.

For further study:

Read Romans 12-13, how do the principles of this sermon relate to Romans 12-13?