

Series: Always Finding Joy

Speaker: Mike Bryant

Scripture: Philippians 2:19-30

Sermon: Exemplary Expressions of Joyful Living

Dig Deeper:

1. Who are the people in your life that you are regularly concerned about?
2. What are some factors that hinder our ability to have concern for others?
3. How can a person grow in empathy for others?
4. Who are the examples in your life of people who are committed to Jesus? How is that commitment visible?
5. What does it look like practically to be a co-laborer for the gospel?
6. Who are the people in your life who are great examples of godliness? How can you honor those people?
7. What does Mike mean when he says “say it, show it and celebrate it”?
8. How can you honor your father’s reputation but still be honest about his shortcomings with trusted friends?

Application:

9. Pray for God to increase your empathy for others.
10. Fathers, what are the ways that you show your children your own commitment to Christ?
11. How are you laboring for the gospel right now? Where are you spreading and defending the gospel?
12. How is God calling you to get involved with the life of the church?

For further study:

13. Read 1 and 2 Timothy. What kind of person was Timothy and what did he do that was worthy of imitating?
