“The Story: The Beginning of the End” | Pastor Scott

“We are to have no King but King Jesus”

I. The Northern Kingdom: Israel.

A. Beginning of the End

B. 19 Kings in Israel, NONE of them “did good in the eyes of the Lord.”
2 Kings 17

C. Fell to the Assyrians in 722 BC. Carried into exile. Became the “lost tribes of Israel.”

II. Southern Kingdom: Judah

A. Ruled by good and evil kings. 19 kings; five good ones.

B. Hezekiah was a good king.
2 Kings 18-19

-puts away idols (2 Kings 18:4)

-purifies the temple (2 Chronicles 29:3-6)

-puts his trust in God (2 Kings 18:5-8; Psalm 20:7)

C. Manasseh, Hezekiah’s son, was an evil king.
2 Kings 21; Isaiah 1, 6, 14

Isaiah’s Message (Isaiah 1)

-Rebellion against God (Isaiah 1:2-3)

- Empty Religions (Isaiah 1:11, 13)
- Social Injustice (Isaiah 1:21, 23)

Isaiah's Calling (Isaiah 6:1-8)

D. God will keep His promise to bring the Messiah through Judah.

III. The Suffering Servant

A. Seven hundred years before Jesus, Isaiah provides a character sketch of the Messiah. Isaiah 53:1-7, 10-11a.

“This is the kind of Messiah you should be looking for.”

B. Christ is the beginning of the end of sin, suffering, death, pain, etc.

Application & Lessons Learned.

1. No King but King Jesus. (Lesson learned from the Northern Tribes).

2. Take Everything to the Lord. (Lesson learned from Hezekiah).

3. Trust in the Suffering Servant, Jesus.

The Story #16 Going Deeper

2 Kings; Isaiah

“The Story – The Beginning of the End”

Key Question: What can we learn from Ahaz and Hezekiah about trusting God in difficult times? <sup>1</sup>

Assyria’s Attacks

To Israel’s north, the Assyrian empire grew powerful and threatening. In 735 BC, the kings of Israel and Aram tried to force the newly crowned king of Judah, Ahaz, to join a coalition against Assyria. When he refused, they attacked, threatening to replace him with a king who would comply.

God sent the prophet Isaiah<sup>2</sup> to encourage Ahaz king of Judah not to be afraid, for he wouldn’t let them overthrow him. He told Ahaz to ask for any sign as proof.<sup>3</sup> But Ahaz refused and instead sought Assyria’s<sup>4</sup> help. He voluntarily became a vassal<sup>5</sup> to Assyria’s king, paid him a large tribute, and set up shrines to Assyria’s gods in Jerusalem.

In return, Assyria’s king attacked and deported Aram’s people.<sup>6</sup> Then he attacked Israel and took over all but the hill country of Ephraim<sup>7</sup> and forced her new king, Hoshea, to be a tribute-paying vassal.<sup>8</sup> Many Israelites fled south to Judah.

Eventually Hoshea king of Israel stopped paying tribute. Assyria responded brutally. The royal city of Samaria fell in 722, and the nation of Israel was no more.<sup>9</sup> Assyria deported Israel’s inhabitants to other lands within its empire, replacing them with captives from other conquered nations.<sup>10</sup>

1. (a) How had the Lord sought to keep Israel whole (2 Kings 17:13)?

(b) How did the Israelites respond (17:14)?

<sup>1</sup> Unless otherwise noted, all commentary and questions are from Personal Journal and Discussion by Jean E. Jones. <http://www.jeanejones.net/the-story-bible-study-guides/>

<sup>5</sup> In such a relationship, the Assyrian king was called a suzerain, or king of kings. The vassal king submitted to the suzerain, paid tribute, and provided troops. In return the suzerain protected the vassal. The kings of Israel and Judah were supposed to be vassals of God.

<sup>9</sup> The northern kingdom of Israel split from Judah in 930 and fell two centuries later. For perspective, consider how far the United States moved from the Biblical principles on which it was founded in just two centuries.

<sup>10</sup> 2 Kings 17:6, 24. Assyria designated this area the province of Samerina. Agricultural workers probably stayed behind. The mix of people were called the Samaritans by New Testament times.

(c) Why does obedience require trust in the Lord?

(d) Prayerfully consider if there is any area in which you are not obeying God. If so, ask God to show you where you lack trust and write out steps you will take to obey God.

Meanwhile in Judah, Ahaz found that Assyria gave him more trouble than help.<sup>11</sup> He abandoned the God of Abraham altogether and built an altar to the god of Damascus in the Jerusalem temple.<sup>12</sup> He built shrines for Canaanite gods and even sacrificed his sons in the fire of the god Molech.<sup>13</sup> Finally, he shut down the temple.

Ahaz died seven years after Israel fell, leaving his son, Hezekiah, with a kingdom in spiritual and moral disarray.

Hezekiah immediately set out to turn things around. He removed the idols and shrines, reopened and purified the temple, and put the temple back into service. He planned a huge Passover celebration and sent couriers not only throughout Judah to announce it, but also into the north to invite Israelites who had escaped deportation.<sup>14</sup> He emphasized that they were all really one people under the God of Israel.<sup>15</sup>

Hezekiah stopped paying tribute to Assyria. But undoing the sins of his father proved difficult, for in 701, Assyria laid siege to Jerusalem.

2. (a) How did the Assyrian field commander try to discourage the people within Jerusalem's walls from trusting God (2 Kings 18:29–32)?

(b) How does Satan similarly try to discourage us from trusting God?

(c) Briefly describe a time someone tried to discourage you or a loved one from trusting God.

God's Deliverance

In the midst of the siege, Assyria's King Sennacherib sent Hezekiah a threatening letter. Hezekiah took it to the temple, spread it out before the Lord, and prayed.

3. (a) How does Hezekiah describe God (2 Kings 19:15)?

(b) How does recalling God's attributes in prayer help us to trust God?

<sup>15</sup> 2 Chronicles 30:5. Since only one kingdom remained, the name Israel again referred to all descendants of Israel.

(c) What does Hezekiah ask God to do in 19:16?

(d) The letter said no nation's god had been able to deliver it from Assyria, and neither would Judah's God. How does Hezekiah's view differ (19:17–18)?

(e) What does Hezekiah say will happen if God delivers Judah (19:19)?

4. Think of a situation in your life that you need to entrust to God. Find an object that symbolizes that situation, such as a letter, photo, or sketch. Lay it before you. Write a prayer based on Hezekiah's prayer. Begin by worshipping God for his attributes that you can depend on. Ask God to see your symbolic item. Explain the situation from a godly viewpoint as best as you can. Then ask for help with the situation, and thank him for using difficult circumstances to teach you how to trust him more.

God sent the prophet Isaiah to tell Hezekiah that he would save the city.

5. How did God rescue Jerusalem (2 Kings 19:35–37)?

Judah's Judgment Foretold

Isaiah's prophecies are collected in the book bearing his name.<sup>16</sup> Chapter six describes how God called him to be a prophet years earlier.<sup>17</sup>

6. What strikes you most about Isaiah's reaction to seeing God (Isaiah 6:5–7)?

The first six chapters of Isaiah call Judah to repentance and announce exile is imminent.<sup>18</sup>

7. (a) What did Isaiah see happening to Judah in Isaiah 3:8–9?

(b) What causes people to parade sin?

Isaiah announced Judah's exile wouldn't happen in Hezekiah's lifetime and would be by Babylon, not Assyria.<sup>19</sup>

8. (a) What happens to children whose parents do not discipline them?

<sup>16</sup> In the Bible, the prophetic books are separated into the major (or long) collections and minor (or short) collections. Isaiah is not arranged chronologically.

<sup>17</sup> Isaiah 6:1 refers to King Uzziah's death in 740 BC. (He was also called Azariah.)

(b) What happens to countries whose citizens suffer no consequences for crimes?

(c) Explain the reason for God's judgment of Judah according to Isaiah 26:9–10.

Judah's Return Promised

Though exile would come, it wouldn't last forever.

9. Even though Jacob's descendants<sup>20</sup> would be exiled, what would eventually happen (Isaiah 14:1)?

Isaiah's final chapters were written to comfort the future exiles. They are filled with promises of restoration and hope.

10. (a) What would the future exiles feel was the reason for their suffering (Isaiah 49:14)?

(b) What would be the truth about their situation (49:15–16)?

(c) Have your emotions ever told you something different than the Bible tells you? What do you do when that happens?

(d) Explain how Isaiah 49:15–16 applies to you.

The Messiah Promised

Isaiah spoke of a future suffering Servant who would be the perfect Israel, the Messiah, the Great High Priest who would redeem people from all nations from sin and who would make known the Holy One of Israel.

11. (a) Why do you think the Messiah would have “no beauty or majesty to attract us to him” (Isaiah 53:2)?

(b) Why would it be necessary for him to be familiar with suffering (53:3)?

<sup>20</sup> After the northern kingdom of Israel fell, people began to again use the name Israel to refer to all Jews.

(c) Briefly describe a time Jesus took up your pain and bore your suffering (53:4).

12. The table below lists New Testament passages showing how Jesus fulfilled Isaiah 53:4–12. Write the number of the fulfilled verse in the column on the right. (There may be more than one passage with the same verse, but verses are in order.)<sup>21</sup>

| New Testament Passage   | Isaiah 53 Verse |
|---|-----------------|
| When evening came, many who were demon-possessed were brought to him, and he drove out the spirits with a word and healed all the sick. This was to fulfill what was spoken through the prophet Isaiah: “He took up our infirmities and carried our diseases.” Matthew 8:16–17   |                 |
| Instead, one of the soldiers pierced Jesus’ side with a spear, bringing a sudden flow of blood and water. John 19:34   |                 |
| He himself bore our sins in his body on the tree, so that we might die to sins and live for righteousness; by his wounds you have been healed. For you were like sheep going astray, but now you have returned to the Shepherd and Overseer of your souls. 1 Peter 2:24–25   |                 |
| The next day John saw Jesus coming toward him and said, “Look, the Lamb of God, who takes away the sin of the world!” John 1:29  |                 |
| When he was accused by the chief priests and the elders, he gave no answer. Then Pilate asked him, “Don’t you hear the testimony they are bringing against you?” But Jesus made no reply, not even to a single charge—to the great amazement of the governor. Matthew 27:12–14   |                 |
| The chief priests and the whole Sanhedrin were looking for false evidence against Jesus so that they could put him to death. Matthew 26:59For [Pilate] knew it was out of envy that they had handed Jesus over to him. Matthew 27:18  |                 |
| Two robbers were crucified with him, one on his right and one on his left. Matthew 27:38   |                 |
| As evening approached, there came a rich man from Arimathea, named Joseph, who had himself become a disciple of Jesus. Going to Pilate, he asked for Jesus’ body, and Pilate ordered that it be given to him. Joseph took the body, wrapped it in a clean linen cloth, and placed it in his own new tomb that he had cut out of the rock. He rolled a big stone in front of the entrance to the tomb and went away. Matthew 27:57–60 |                 |
| But how is it to your credit if you receive a beating for doing wrong and endure it? But if you suffer for doing good and you endure it, this is commendable before God. To this you were called, because Christ suffered for you, leaving you an example, that you should follow in his steps. “He committed no sin, and no deceit was found in his mouth.” 1 Peter 2:20–22   |                 |
| This man was handed over to you by God’s set purpose and foreknowledge; and you, with the help of wicked men, put him to death by nailing him to the cross. Acts 2:23  |                 |
| For God did not send his Son into the world to condemn the world, but to save the world through him. John 3:17   |                 |
| ... that he was buried, that he was raised on the third day according to the Scriptures, 1 Corinthians 15:4  |                 |

<sup>21</sup> Answer key: 4; 5; 5–6; 7; 7; 8; 9; 9; 9; 10; 10; 11; 11; 12; 12; 12.

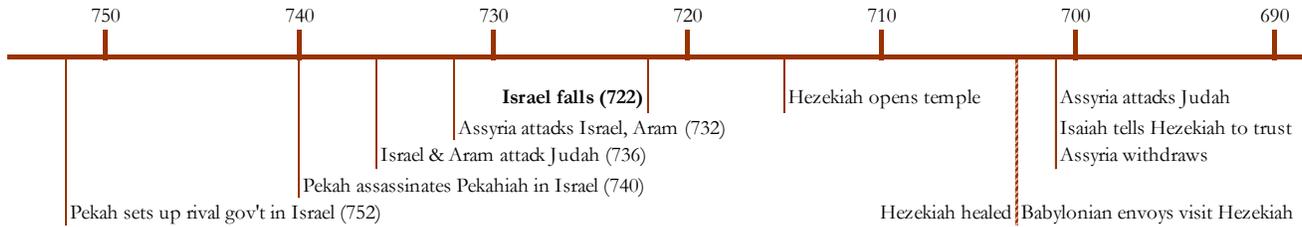

For just as through the disobedience of the one man the many were made sinners, so also through the obedience of the one man the many will be made righteous.

Romans 5:19

And being found in appearance as a man, he humbled himself and became obedient to death—even death on a cross! Philippians 2:8

It is written: ‘And he was numbered with the transgressors’; and I tell you that this must be fulfilled in me [Jesus]. Yes, what is written about me is reaching its fulfillment.” Luke 22:37

Therefore he is able to save completely those who come to God through him, because he always lives to intercede for them. Hebrews 7:25

Isaiah 52:13-53:12 (NKJV)

52 <sup>13</sup> Behold, My Servant shall deal prudently;
He shall be exalted and extolled and be very high.

<sup>14</sup> Just as many were astonished at you,
So His visage was marred more than any man,

And His form more than the sons of men;

<sup>15</sup> So shall He sprinkle many nations.
Kings shall shut their mouths at Him;
For what had not been told them they shall see,
And what they had not heard they shall consider.

53 Who has believed our report?
And to whom has the arm of the LORD been revealed?

<sup>2</sup> For He shall grow up before Him as a tender plant,

And as a root out of dry ground.

He has no form or comeliness;

And when we see Him,

There is no beauty that we should desire Him.

<sup>3</sup> He is despised and rejected by men,
A Man of sorrows and acquainted with grief.
And we hid, as it were, our faces from Him;
He was despised, and we did not esteem Him.

<sup>4</sup> Surely He has borne our griefs

And carried our sorrows;

Yet we esteemed Him stricken,

Smitten by God, and afflicted.

<sup>5</sup> But He was wounded for our transgressions,

He was bruised for our iniquities;

The chastisement for our peace was upon Him,

And by His stripes we are healed.

<sup>6</sup> All we like sheep have gone astray;

We have turned, every one, to his own way;

And the LORD has laid on Him the iniquity of us all.

<sup>7</sup> He was oppressed and He was afflicted,
Yet He opened not His mouth;
He was led as a lamb to the slaughter,
And as a sheep before its shearers is silent,
So He opened not His mouth.

<sup>8</sup> He was taken from prison and from judgment,

And who will declare His generation?

For He was cut off from the land of the living;

For the transgressions of My people He was stricken.

<sup>9</sup> And they made His grave with the wicked—

But with the rich at His death,

Because He had done no violence,

Nor was any deceit in His mouth.

<sup>10</sup> Yet it pleased the LORD to bruise Him;

He has put Him to grief.

When You make His soul an offering for sin,

He shall see His seed, He shall prolong His days,

And the pleasure of the LORD shall prosper in His hand.

<sup>11</sup> He shall see the labor of His soul,<sup>[d]</sup> and be satisfied.

By His knowledge My righteous Servant shall justify many,

For He shall bear their iniquities.

<sup>12</sup> Therefore I will divide Him a portion with the great,

And He shall divide the spoil with the strong,

Because He poured out His soul unto death,

And He was numbered with the transgressors,

And He bore the sin of many,

And made intercession for the transgressors.
