

You Are Further Along Than You Think

1 Peter 3:8-12 AMP

- When you're a person given to sacrifice, it's a private, personal matter.
- Sacrifice isn't meant to be seen or praised, that's the wrong motive.
- Refer to Cain and Abel (Genesis 4)

1 Peter 3:8-12 AMP

- We often treat our own family/household worst than a stranger.
- We expect more from our family because of the closeness, but not so much from those outside the family.
- We should treat each other with more grace.

1 Peter 3:8-12 AMP

- Don't hold others to a standard when you can't even hold yourself/household to one.
- Being meek means to be gentle, quiet, humble and patient.
- If you argue and yell with someone that doesn't return that same energy, they're seen as weak when really they could just be showing meekness.

1 Peter 3:8-12 AMP

- Pity means to feel sorrow and sympathy for others, not to condescend them (be patronizing or show superiority).
- Just because you did things your way doesn't mean others should do it like you (ex: parents trying to tell their children how to parent)

You Are Further Along Than You Think

1 Peter 3:8-12 AMP

- Instead of cursing and berating others, bless them.
- Do things out of your heart, not for the recognition and praise.
- When you keep making a sacrifice of praise, good will manifest.
