

Declaring vs. Decreeing

Matt. 6:9-10, Matt. 28:18, Acts 16:16-26,

2 Peter 1:4

AMPC

- Just because you have been given something, does not mean there won't be opposition to what God has blessed you with.
- When God blesses you, your testimony is acknowledging that evil will come to test you.
- With everything that God does, it is the job of the enemy to fight you.

Declaring vs. Decreeing

Matt. 6:9-10, Matt. 28:18, Acts 16:16-26,

2 Peter 1:4

AMPC

- Power: (Greek) Dunamis – Dynamite
- Authority: (Greek) Exousia – Jurisdiction, dominion

Declaring vs. Decreeing

Matt. 6:9-10, Matt. 28:18, Acts 16:16-26,

2 Peter 1:4

AMPC

- God has given us the same power authority that He gave those in the beginning of the church.
- A believer must know what the Heavens have already said to declare it.

Declaring vs. Decreeing

Matt. 6:9-10, Matt. 28:18, Acts 16:16-26,

2 Peter 1:4

AMPC