

Understanding Which Enemy You're Facing

Matthew 13:24-30 TPT, 1 Samuel 15:3 KJV

- When a chief commander takes place, he makes a vow over the bible before the people to protect everything within your ranks and on the outside.
- As believers, we are to protect the truth from within and on the outside.

Understanding Which Enemy You're Facing

Matthew 13:24-30 TPT, 1 Samuel 15:3 KJV

- The farmer represents God the father.
- The seed is a good thing.
- The soil is always indicative of a person's heart.
- The night always represents when you're not as astute(sharp) as you should be.

Understanding Which Enemy You're Facing

Matthew 13:24-30 TPT, 1 Samuel 15:3 KJV

- When you're called to do great things, an enemy will plant bad near you.
- You can do good for a season, but the moment you pause or rest, you let you guard down (sleep).
- When you're in Christ, the enemy runs knowing he can't take you on.

Understanding Which Enemy You're Facing

Matthew 13:24-30 TPT, 1 Samuel 15:3 KJV

- When you have a passive spirit, it's always reminding you of where you've been.
- Remind the enemy of where's he's going.
- Passivity makes you so docile that you won't engage; you focus on others rather than yourself.

Understanding Which Enemy You're Facing

Matthew 13:24-30 TPT, 1 Samuel 15:3 KJV

- Passivity = Tolerance
- “show more love” instead of “here’s the truth”.
- Real belief is being obedient on the path to righteousness.
- Passivity creates a watered- down belief.

Understanding Which Enemy You're Facing

Matthew 13:24-30 TPT, 1 Samuel 15:3 KJV

- There's two types of enemies:
- Matthew 5 (grk. Echthros)
- 1 Samuel 15

7,000 Christians have been massacred in Nigeria - burned, beaten & targeted for their faith. It's Jordan Sekulow with the ACLJ. This is genocide. After our relentless advocacy, President Trump put Nigeria on a persecution watch list, and we're now pressing world leaders at the U.N. to end the slaughter. Our global defense efforts require massive resources - and we urgently need 212 more people from FL to add their name to our urgent
