

How To Bring Biblical Resolve

Galatians 2:11, Proverbs 4:5-9, 1 Thessa. 5:12
(KJV/AMPC)

Read Galatians 2

- Peter was prejudiced; He acted one way with the Jews and another way with the Gentiles.
- Even when you're in the Lord, your mind still needs to be renewed.
- Prejudice is something God detests.
- You must be assertive and have boundaries in your life to deal with conflict.

How To Bring Biblical Resolve

Galatians 2:11, Proverbs 4:5-9, 1 Thessa. 5:12
(KJV/AMPC)

- If a relationship (family, partner, friend, etc) can pull you away from the things of God, you must set boundaries.
- In marriage, don't make your spouse your God.
- We tend to talk one way around certain people because we know it'll offend other people.
- When you embrace wisdom, you're crowned with wisdom (Prov. 4:5-9)

How To Bring Biblical Resolve

Galatians 2:11, Proverbs 4:5-9, 1 Thessa. 5:12
(KJV/AMPC)

- Cultivate compassion during conflict.
- Your wisdom should be used to edify others outside of you.
- Don't use it to win or be above others.
- It's prideful when you gain wisdom and act like you knew all along when you used to be lost.
- You resolve conflict when you learn to be still in the Lord.

How To Bring Biblical Resolve

Galatians 2:11, Proverbs 4:5-9, 1 Thessa. 5:12
(KJV/AMPC)

- Wisdom will stop making you judgmental.
 - Wisdom breaks every stronghold in your life.
 - Work is required to change; Faith without works is dead (James 2:26).
 - Don't just talk and complain about things then do nothing to change them.
 - You can't change others, you can change yourself.
