Do You Know What May Be Hindering You?

1 Corinthians 13:11 (KJV/AMPC)

- A child's thought process begins in the womb.
- It continues to develop when they're born and can hear their environment.
- Children process things in their own unique way for various reasons.

Do You Know What May Be Hindering You?

1 Corinthians 13:11 (KJV/AMPC)

- The attributes of a child is their thought and reasoning.
- When children are whining, complaining making a noise, etc, it's to get your attention because they need or want something.
- When adults whine, complain and are miserable, they are acting like a child who wants attention.

Do You Know What May Be Hindering You?

1 Corinthians 13:11 (KJV/AMPC)

- Don’t have shame to share how God has Blessed you; Let the redeemed of the Lord tell their story (Psalm 107:2).
- When you deal with crazy people to act calm and to solve their issues you have a god complex; stop being a fixer.

Do You Know What May Be Hindering You?

1 Corinthians 13:11 (KJV/AMPC)

- Real adulthood isn’t acting like a child, real adulthood is owning who you are in Christ and not seeking the attention and validation of people around you.
