Life Change: That we are faithful servants of the Messiah

Some Things in Common

A Little Background

Introducing Himself

Paul introduces himself and Timothy

Paul addresses and identifies the believers in Colossae

Paul extends grace and peace

Paul's Preemptive Strike

1. The sufficiency of Christ

2. Understand the faith

3. Fortify the faith

4. Live in Gratitude

5. Holy Living

The believers in Colossae were confronted with a new teaching that promised a deeper experience with God, a new and mysterious freedom, a protection from evil powers, and a more intense form of spiritual formation. This new teaching, however, demoted Jesus Christ and eventually produced spiritual arrogance and division in the body. Paul's answer is simple: Jesus Christ is the supreme revelation of God, and he is sufficient for the deepest experience of life with God. – Danny Hays and Scott Duvall, The Baker Illustrated Bible Handbook, 859

Series Theme: Paul's letter is a response to news he received from Epaphras regarding the churches of the Lycus Valley. Much of the report was encouraging, but some aspects were terribly troubling. Apparently, the Colossians were making up their own religion, as humans are wont to do. It appears to have included redefinitions of sin in some arenas coupled with mysticism and asceticism in other areas. The Jewish legalistic roots of this are evident, as are various Greek philosophies. The answer to all this mess is Jesus and only Jesus. Paul expects Christians to daily live out the fullness of our direct connection to the God-Man, Jesus. This will lead to peace, holiness, respect for godly authority, tender hearts toward other believers, and production of value.

Series Objective: That we create value in keeping with our position in Jesus.

“It is fascinating that this rather tiny, diminished church received one of the only extant letters from an apostle. This little town was blessed with scripture, showing again that God truly does choose the foolish things of this world to shame the wise [1 Corinthians 1:27] and reminding churches today to care more about healthy growth in Christ than the measurements preferred by the worldly-successful.”

- Pastor Wayne

Understanding the Faith

Once you were alienated and hostile in your minds as expressed in your evil actions. But now he has reconciled you by his physical body through his death, to present you holy, faultless, and blameless before him—if indeed you remain grounded and steadfast in the faith and are not shifted away from the hope of the gospel that you heard. This gospel has been proclaimed in all creation under heaven, and I, Paul, have become a servant of it.

Understanding the Faith

And when you were dead in trespasses and in the uncircumcision of your flesh, he made you alive with him and forgave us all our trespasses. He erased the certificate of debt, with its obligations, that was against us and opposed to us, and has taken it away by nailing it to the cross. He disarmed the rulers and authorities and disgraced them publicly; he triumphed over them in him.

Gratitude

When Christians do not live with a deep sense of gratitude for what God has done for them in Christ, they will become engulfed in anxieties and will be tempted to look for security in something other than Christ.

Series Objective:

That we create value in keeping with our position in Jesus.

The holy and faithful one has value:

He has rescued us from the domain of darkness and transferred us into the kingdom of the Son he loves.

Colossians 1:13 (CSB)

The holy and faithful should live by God's values:

For this reason also, since the day we heard this, we haven't stopped praying for you. We are asking that you may be filled with the knowledge of his will in all wisdom and spiritual understanding, so that you may walk worthy of the Lord, fully pleasing to him:

The holy and faithful should live by God's values:

bearing fruit in every good work and growing in the knowledge of God, being strengthened with all power, according to his glorious might, so that you may have great endurance and patience, joyfully giving thanks to the Father, who has enabled you to share in the saints' inheritance in the light.

Colossians 1:9–12 (CSB)

The holy and faithful one creates value in society:

Whatever you do, do it from the heart, as something done for the Lord and not for people,
