Tells Us about Himself

John 17:1b–5

Jesus has glory and gives glory

Jesus has the authority of eternal life

Jesus completed the work

Jesus has glory and gives glory

Jesus has the authority of eternal life

Jesus completed the work

John 17:1, 4–5 (CSB) – Jesus spoke these things, looked up to heaven, and said, “Father, the hour has come. Glorify your Son so that the Son may glorify you. . . . I have glorified you on the earth by completing the work you gave me to do. Now, Father, glorify me in your presence with that glory I had with you before the world existed.”

Philippians 2:6–11 (CSB) – who, existing in the form of God, did not consider equality with God as something to be exploited. Instead he emptied himself by assuming the form of a servant, taking on the likeness of humanity. And when he had come as a man, he humbled himself by becoming obedient to the point of death—even to death on a cross. For this reason God highly exalted him and gave him the name that is above every name, so that at the name of Jesus every knee will bow—in heaven and on earth and under the earth—and every tongue will confess that Jesus Christ is Lord, to the glory of God the Father.

Jesus has glory and gives glory

Jesus has the authority of eternal life

Jesus completed the work

John 17:2–3 (CSB) – “since you gave him authority over all people, so that he may give eternal life to everyone you have given him. This is eternal life: that they may know you, the only true God, and the one you have sent—Jesus Christ.”

Jesus has glory and gives glory

Jesus has the authority of eternal life

Jesus completed the work

John 17:4 (CSB) – “I have glorified you on the earth by completing the work you gave me to do.”

Now they know that everything you have given me is from you, because I have given them the words you gave me. They have received them and have known for certain that I came from you. They have believed that you sent me.

“I pray for them. I am not praying for the world but for those you have given me, because they are yours. Everything I have is yours, and everything you have is mine, and I am glorified in them.”
