The prophetic horizon of Zechariah is far broader than that of the other minor prophets...He dwells on the Person and work of Christ more fully than all the other minor prophets together. – Charles L. Feinberg, Zechariah: Israel's Comfort and Glory

The background features a vibrant purple color with a subtle, ethereal cloud-like texture. Overlaid on this is a series of concentric, double-lined diamond shapes. The innermost diamond is white and contains the text. The surrounding diamonds are formed by two parallel lines of a shimmering, metallic gold or bronze color. The overall effect is one of depth and visual interest, with the text clearly centered within the white diamond.

There is an interesting paradox in Zechariah. This most future-focused prophet grounds everything in memory.

1 Corinthians 15

²⁰ Christ has been raised from the dead, the firstfruits of those who have fallen asleep. ²² For just as in Adam all die, so also in Christ all will be made alive. ²³ But each in his own order: Christ, the firstfruits; afterward, at his coming, those who belong to Christ. ²⁴ Then comes the end, when he hands over the kingdom to God the Father, when he abolishes all rule and all authority and power. ²⁵ For he must reign until he puts all his enemies under his feet. ²⁶ The last enemy to be abolished is death. ^{CSB}

The great memory battle of 2022

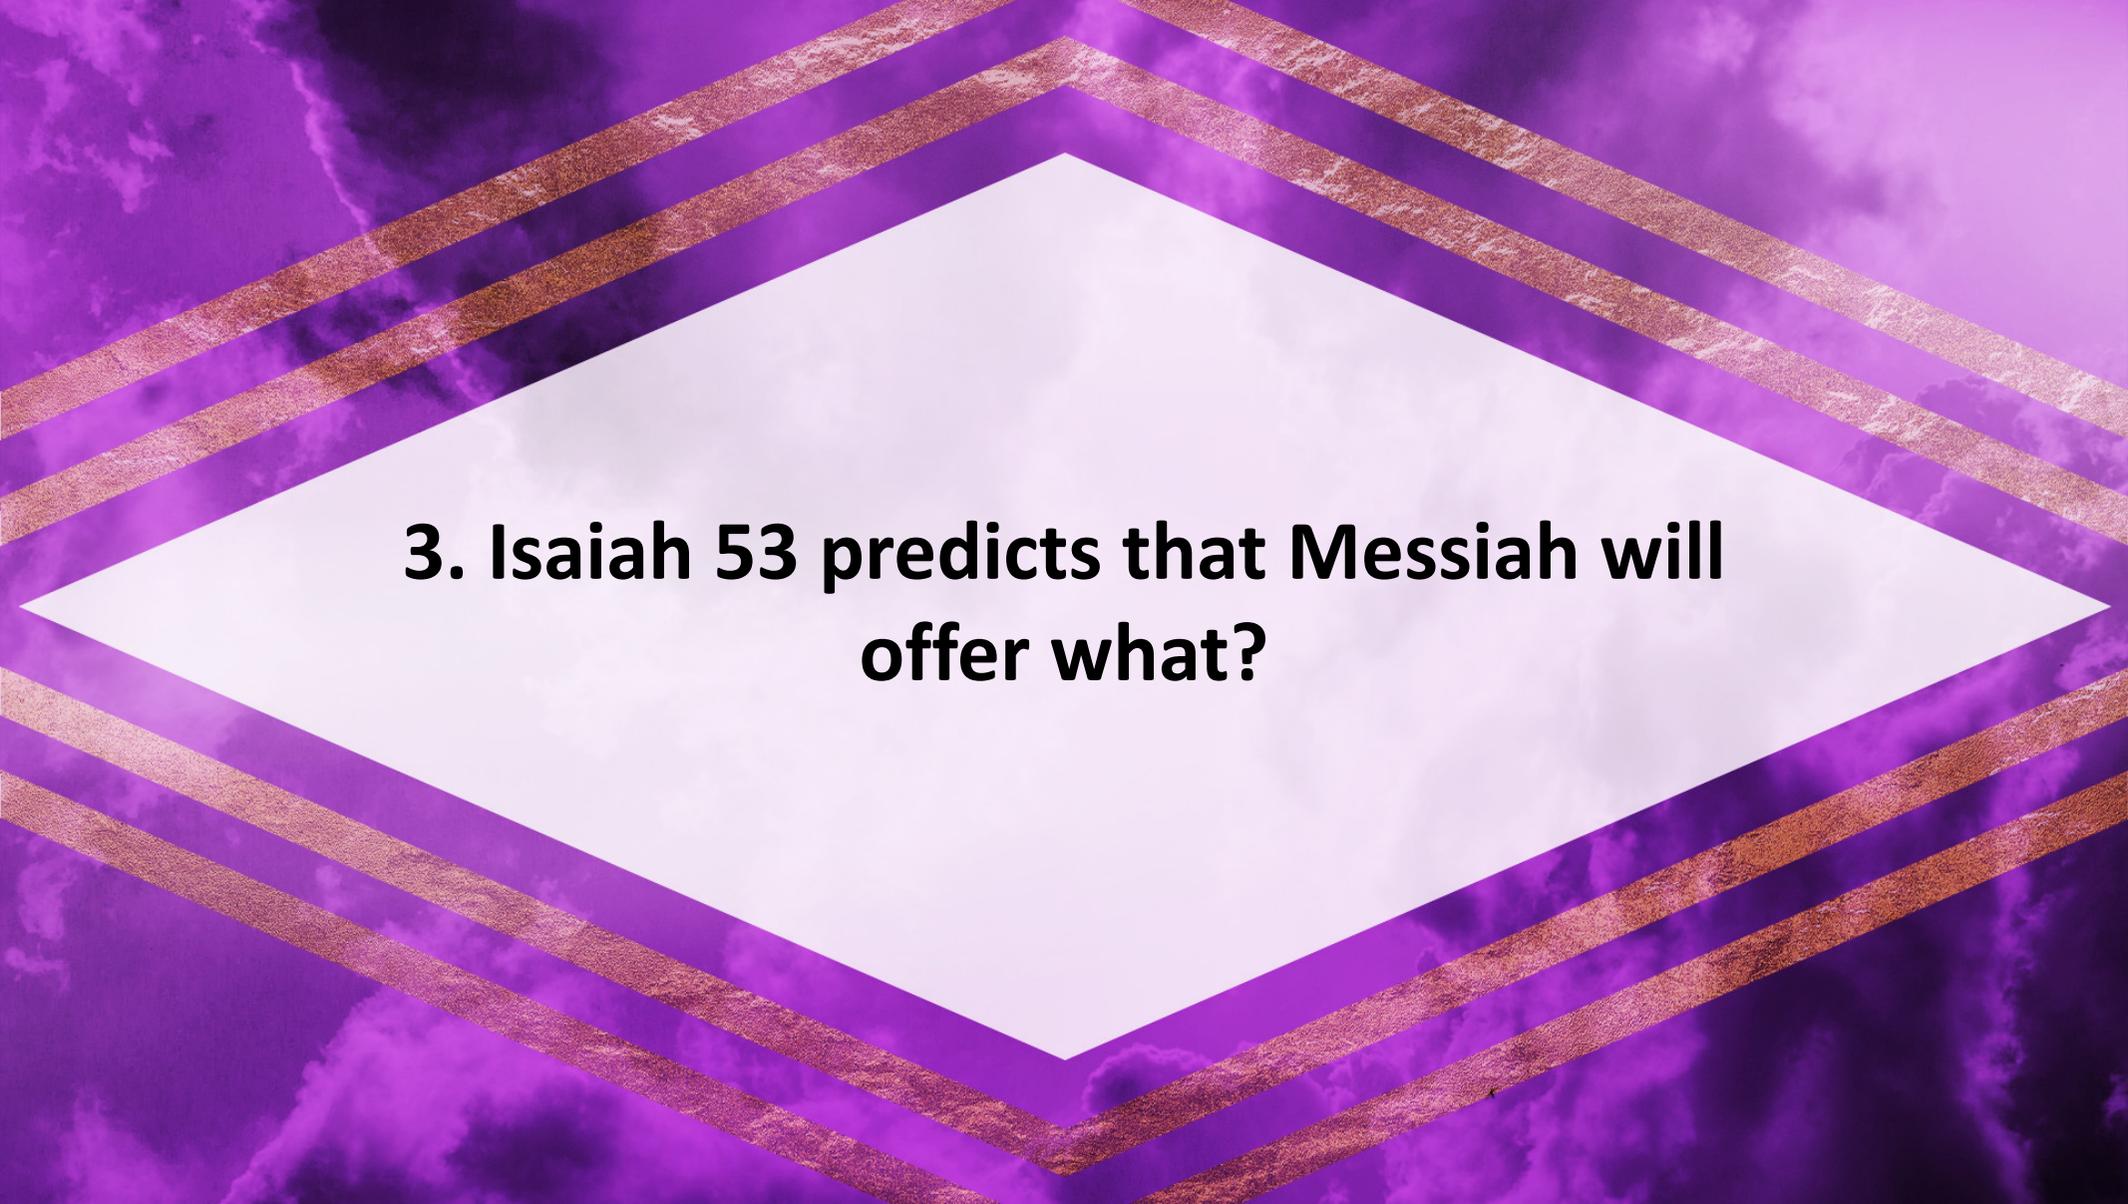

- Each of you starts with one finger on the stool of truth.
- I will ask a question that has to do with memory.
- Whoever first grabs St. Nicholas gets to answer.
- If he or she is correct, their team gets 10 points; if wrong, their team loses 9 points.
- Pastor Wayne is the only arbiter. Any disagreeing costs a team 50 points. Ready?
