Group Discussion Questions

1. What stood out to you most from the sermon about Charlie Kirk's life and legacy?
2. How does Ephesians 6:12 shape the way we interpret persecution and spiritual warfare in today's culture?
3. Read Acts 7:55–60. What can we learn from Stephen's response to persecution? How can we apply that today?
4. Why is it important to recognize that Christians are not appointed to wrath (1 Thessalonians 5:9)? How does that shape your view of God's justice and grace?
5. Revelation 12:11 says we overcome by the word of our testimony. What is your testimony, and who needs to hear it this week?
6. What does it practically look like to 'Show up, Stand up, and Speak up' in your current circle of influence?
7. How can you strengthen yourself in the Lord—spiritually, mentally, and relationally—in the days ahead?
