MORE THAN THAT,
WE ALSO REJOICE

Worship Leader Pastor Timothy Gerbing
Preacher Pastor Daniel Krause

Prayer: O God, release me from the emptiness of a life of sin. In the midst of my oppressive weakness, restore to me the joy of your salvation. Remind me of the cross on which your Son bore the guilt of my sin. Remind me of the empty tomb by which he gained for me the freedom to live. Thank you, God my father, for the joy and peace that revive me and restore me to live in and for you. In your Son's name I pray. Amen.

INVOCATION

P: We worship in the name of the Father and of the Son (†) and of the Holy Spirit.

C: Amen.

CONFESSION OF SINS AND FORGIVENESS

P: In the cleansing waters of baptism, we were marked with the sign of the cross.

C: Our heavenly Father washed away our sins and claimed us as his own.

P: The power of baptism is in the Word of God, carrying news of the sacrificial life, death, and resurrection of Jesus Christ, whose cross stands forever as a sign of hope for a fallen world.

C: So often we have despised God's Word and have failed to gladly hear and learn it. We have been selfish in our thoughts and attitudes, unloving with our words and actions, and greedy for worldly possessions. For this and all of our sins, we humbly bow before you, O God, and ask for your forgiveness.

To avoid disruptions, please silence your cell phones before worship.

P: God gave his Word so “that you may believe that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God, and that by believing you may have life in his name.” (John 20:31) The Scriptures testify about Jesus, who lived a perfect life for you, died on the cross to pay for all your sins, and rose again to assure you of your salvation. Therefore, as a called servant of Christ and by his authority, I forgive you all your sins in the name of the Father and of the Son (†) and of the Holy Spirit.

C: Amen.

“For the Cause” (Choir, Sunday Services)

For the cause of Christ the King we give our lives, an offering
’Til all the earth resounds with ceaseless praise to the Son.

For the cause of Christ we go with joy to reap, with faith to sow
As many see and many put their trust in the Son.

Christ we proclaim, the name above ev’ry name.

For all creation, ev’ry nation, God’s salvation through the Son.

For the King once lifted high to cries of rage, of “crucify!”
Endured the cross as ev’ry sin was laid on the Son.

To the King who conquered death to free the poor and the oppressed,
For lasting peace, for life and liberty in the Son.

Let it be my life’s refrain: to live is Christ, to die is gain.
Deny myself, take up my cross and follow the Son.

BAPTISM Jordy Jameson Matley (10:30 am Sunday Service)

RESPONSIVE PASSION HISTORY READING

Leader: Jesus told the disciples,

Men: “This very night you will all fall away on account of me, for it is written:

Women: ‘I will strike the shepherd, and the sheep of the flock will be scattered.’

Men: But after I have risen, I will go ahead of you into Galilee.”

Leader: Peter replied,

Cong. : “Even if all fall away on account of you, I never will.”

Men: "I tell you the truth, this very night, before the rooster crows twice, you will disown me three times."

Leader: But Peter declared,

Cong.: "Even if I have to die with you, I will never disown you."

Leader: And all the other disciples said the same. Then Jesus went with his disciples to a place called Gethsemane, and he said to them,

Men: "Sit here while I go over there and pray."

Leader: He took Peter and the two sons of Zebedee along with him, and he began to be sorrowful and troubled. Then he said to them,

Men: "My soul is overwhelmed with sorrow to the point of death. Stay here and keep watch with me."

Leader: Going a little farther, he fell with his face to the ground and prayed,

Cong.: "My Father, if it is possible, may this cup be taken from me. Yet not as I will, but as you will."

Leader: An angel from heaven appeared to him and strengthened him. And being in anguish, he prayed more earnestly, and his sweat was like drops of blood falling to the ground. Then he returned to his disciples and found them sleeping. He asked Peter,

Cong.: "Could you men not keep watch with me for one hour? Watch and pray so that you will not fall into temptation. The spirit is willing, but the body is weak."

Leader: He went away a second time and prayed,

Cong.: "My Father, if it is not possible for this cup to be taken away unless I drink it, may your will be done."

Leader: When he came back, he again found them sleeping, because their eyes were heavy. So he left them and went away once more and prayed the third time, saying the same thing. Then he returned to the disciples and said to them,

Cong.: "Are you still sleeping and resting? Look, the hour is near, and the Son of Man is betrayed into the hands of sinners. Rise, let us go. Here comes my betrayer!"

Leader: Now Judas, who betrayed him, knew the place, because Jesus had often met there with his disciples. While he was still speaking, Judas, one of the Twelve, arrived. With him was a large crowd armed with swords and clubs, sent from the chief priests and the elders of the people. Now the betrayer had arranged a signal with them:

Men: “The one I kiss is the man; arrest him.”

Leader: Going at once to Jesus, Judas said, “Greetings, Rabbi!” and kissed him. Jesus replied,

Cong.: “Judas, are you betraying the Son of Man with a kiss? Friend, do what you came for.”

Leader: When Jesus’ followers saw what was going to happen, they said,

Cong.: “Lord, should we strike with our swords?”

Leader: And Peter struck the servant of the high priest, cutting off his right ear. (The servant’s name was Malchus.) But Jesus answered,

Men: “No more of this!”

Women: And he touched the man’s ear and healed him. Jesus said,

Leader: “Put your sword back in its place, for all who draw the sword will die by the sword. Do you think I cannot call on my Father, and he will at once put at my disposal more than twelve legions of angels? But how then would the Scriptures be fulfilled that say it must happen in this way?”

Women: Jesus, knowing all that was going to happen to him, went out and asked them,

Leader: “Who is it you want?”

Cong.: “Jesus of Nazareth!”

Leader: “I am he.”

Women: (And Judas the traitor was standing there with them.) When Jesus said, “I am he,” they drew back and fell to the ground. Again he asked them,

Leader: “Who is it you want?”

Cong. : “Jesus of Nazareth!”

Leader: “I told you that I am he. If you are looking for me, then let these men go.”

Women: This happened so that the words he had spoken would be fulfilled:

Men: “I have not lost one of those you gave me.”

Women: The men seized Jesus and arrested him. Jesus said,

Leader: “Am I leading a rebellion that you have come out with swords and clubs to capture me? Every day I was with you, teaching in the temple courts, and you did not arrest me. But the Scriptures must be fulfilled.”

Cong.: Then all the disciples deserted him and fled. A young man, wearing nothing but a linen garment, was following Jesus. When they seized him, he fled naked, leaving his garment behind.

EPISTLE LESSON Romans 5: 1-11

Therefore, since we have been justified through faith, we have peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ, through whom we have gained access by faith into this grace in which we now stand. And we boast in the hope of the glory of God. Not only so, but we also glory in our sufferings, because we know that suffering produces perseverance; perseverance, character; and character, hope. And hope does not put us to shame, because God’s love has been poured out into our hearts through the Holy Spirit, who has been given to us.

You see, at just the right time, when we were still powerless, Christ died for the ungodly. Very rarely will anyone die for a righteous person, though for a good person someone might possibly dare to die. But God demonstrates his own love for us in this: While we were still sinners, Christ died for us.

Since we have now been justified by his blood, how much more shall we be saved from God’s wrath through him! For if, while we were God’s enemies, we were reconciled to him through the death of his Son, how much more, having been reconciled, shall we be saved through his life! Not only is this so, but we also boast in God through our Lord Jesus Christ, through whom we have now received reconciliation.

SERMON TEXT Mark 8: 27-38

Jesus and his disciples went on to the villages around Caesarea Philippi. On the way he asked them, “Who do people say I am?”

They replied, “Some say John the Baptist; others say Elijah; and still others, one of the prophets.”

“But what about you?” he asked. “Who do you say I am?”

Peter answered, “You are the Messiah.”

Jesus warned them not to tell anyone about him.

He then began to teach them that the Son of Man must suffer many things and be rejected by the elders, the chief priests and the teachers of the law, and that he must be killed and after three days rise again. He spoke plainly about this, and Peter took him aside and began to rebuke him.

But when Jesus turned and looked at his disciples, he rebuked Peter. “Get behind me, Satan!” he said. “You do not have in mind the concerns of God, but merely human concerns.”

Then he called the crowd to him along with his disciples and said: “Whoever wants to be my disciple must deny themselves and take up their cross and follow me. For whoever wants to save their life will lose it, but whoever loses their life for me and for the gospel will save it. What good is it for someone to gain the whole world, yet forfeit their soul? Or what can anyone give in exchange for their soul? If anyone is ashamed of me and my words in this adulterous and sinful generation, the Son of Man will be ashamed of them when he comes in his Father’s glory with the holy angels.”

Questions can be addressed to Pastor Richard Krause.

Midweek Lenten Worship Services

Midweek Lenten Worship Services are held at the usual Wednesday worship times of 12:00 & 6:30 pm at our Pewaukee Campus.

The theme for the 2024 Lenten sermons is “God on Trial.” The unbelieving world has always insisted on putting God on trial. As our society becomes more secular, we Christians are increasingly aware of the many ways in which God—and his people—are judged. Temptations are many in this environment: treating unbelievers as enemies, retreating from the world, even questioning God ourselves. How do we live as people of God in this hostile world? We find our model—and our motivation—in Jesus. This series takes us back to the moments when God was literally on trial before men in the person of Christ. In these inspired episodes, we find forgiveness for us and all people, love for our enemies, strength for our faith, and courage to testify to the truth.

Why not commit yourselves to attend as many of the mid-week Lenten services as you can with your family? You will experience even greater joy in Christ’s victory over death at Easter!

Midweek Lenten Meals

Lunch will be offered after the noon Lenten worship services at about 12:45 pm. Dinner will be offered before the evening services at 5:30 pm. We thank the many volunteers preparing and serving these meals! If you are able to help, please contact Lylette Smith (414-378-4107) for lunches, or Judy Tetting (262-523-1374) for dinners.
