Why trouble the Teacher?

Prayer: Loving Father, make me ready and willing to serve in your kingdom this day. I place myself in your care and power to become an instrument of your will. Despite my weaknesses and failings, use me effectively in the tasks to which you have appointed me. Hear my prayer, through Jesus Christ, your Son, my Lord. Amen.

CALL TO WORSHIP

P: We worship in the name of the Father and of the Son (†) and of the Holy Spirit.

C: Amen.

P: Great is the LORD and most worthy of praise;

C: His greatness no one can fathom.

P: One generation will commend your works to another;

C: They tell of your mighty acts.

P: They speak of the glorious splendor of your majesty—

C: And I will meditate on your wonderful works.

P: They tell of the power of your awesome works—

C: And I will proclaim your great deeds.

P: The LORD is gracious and compassionate,

C: Slow to anger and rich in love.

P: The LORD is good to all;

C: He has compassion on all he has made. (Psalm 145:3-9)

CONFESSION OF SINS AND FORGIVENESS

P: We have come into the presence of God, who created us to love and serve him as his dear children. But we have disobeyed him and deserve only his wrath and punishment. Therefore, let us confess our sins to him and plead for his mercy.

C: Merciful Father in heaven, I am altogether sinful from birth. In countless ways I have sinned against you and do not deserve to be called your child. But trusting in Jesus, my Savior, I pray: Have mercy on me according to your unfailing love. Cleanse me from my sin, and take away my guilt.

P: God, our heavenly Father, has forgiven all your sins. By the perfect life and innocent death of our Lord Jesus Christ, he has removed your guilt forever. You are his own dear child. May God give you strength to live according to his will.

C: Amen.

PRAYER

P: O God our Father, through his earthly ministry your Son Jesus showed mercy and compassion by forgiving sins, healing the sick, and raising the dead. Pour your healing Word and sacraments into us that we overflow with the peace of forgiveness and reflect your great love to all people everywhere.

C: Amen.

EPISTLE LESSON 2 Corinthians 8: 1-9, 13-15

And now, brothers and sisters, we want you to know about the grace that God has given the Macedonian churches. In the midst of a very severe trial, their overflowing joy and their extreme poverty welled up in rich generosity. For I testify that they gave as much as they were able, and even beyond their ability. Entirely on their own, they urgently pleaded with us for the privilege of sharing in this service to the Lord's people. And they exceeded our expectations: They gave themselves first of all to the Lord, and then by the will of God also to us. So we urged Titus, just as he had earlier made a beginning, to bring also to completion this act of grace on your part. But since you excel in everything—in faith, in speech, in knowledge, in complete earnestness and in the love we have kindled in you—see that you also excel in this grace of giving.

I am not commanding you, but I want to test the sincerity of your love by comparing it with the earnestness of others. For you know the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, that though he was rich, yet for your sake he became poor, so that you through his poverty might become rich.

Our desire is not that others might be relieved while you are hard pressed, but that there might be equality. At the present time your plenty will supply what they need, so that in turn their plenty will supply what you need. The goal is equality, as it is written: "The one who gathered much did not have too much, and the one who gathered little did not have too little."

GOSPEL LESSON Mark 5: 21-43

When Jesus had again crossed over by boat to the other side of the lake, a large crowd gathered around him while he was by the lake. Then one of the synagogue leaders, named Jairus, came, and when he saw Jesus, he fell at his feet. He pleaded earnestly with him, "My little daughter is dying. Please come and put your hands on her so that she will be healed and live." So Jesus went with him.

A large crowd followed and pressed around him. And a woman was there who had been subject to bleeding for twelve years. She had suffered a great deal under the care of many doctors and had spent all she had, yet instead of getting better she grew worse. When she heard about Jesus, she came up behind him in the crowd and touched his cloak, because she thought, "If I just touch his clothes, I will be healed." Immediately her bleeding stopped and she felt in her body that she was freed from her suffering.

At once Jesus realized that power had gone out from him. He turned around in the crowd and asked, "Who touched my clothes?"

“You see the people crowding against you,” his disciples answered, “and yet you can ask, ‘Who touched me?’ ”

But Jesus kept looking around to see who had done it. Then the woman, knowing what had happened to her, came and fell at his feet and, trembling with fear, told him the whole truth. He said to her, “Daughter, your faith has healed you. Go in peace and be freed from your suffering.”

While Jesus was still speaking, some people came from the house of Jairus, the synagogue leader. “Your daughter is dead,” they said. “Why bother the teacher anymore?”

Overhearing what they said, Jesus told him, “Don’t be afraid; just believe.”

He did not let anyone follow him except Peter, James and John the brother of James. When they came to the home of the synagogue leader, Jesus saw a commotion, with people crying and wailing loudly. He went in and said to them, “Why all this commotion and wailing? The child is not dead but asleep.” But they laughed at him.

After he put them all out, he took the child’s father and mother and the disciples who were with him, and went in where the child was. He took her by the hand and said to her, “Talitha koum!” (which means “Little girl, I say to you, get up!”). Immediately the girl stood up and began to walk around (she was twelve years old). At this they were completely astonished. He gave strict orders not to let anyone know about this, and told them to give her something to eat.

SERMON TEXT Lamentations 3: 22-33

Because of the LORD's great love we are not consumed, for his compassions never fail.
 They are new every morning;
 great is your faithfulness.
 I say to myself, "The LORD is my portion;
 therefore I will wait for him."

The LORD is good to those whose hope is in him,
 to the one who seeks him;
 it is good to wait quietly
 for the salvation of the LORD.
 It is good for a man to bear the yoke
 while he is young.

Let him sit alone in silence,
 for the LORD has laid it on him.
 Let him bury his face in the dust—
 there may yet be hope.
 Let him offer his cheek to one who would strike him,
 and let him be filled with disgrace.

For no one is cast off
 by the Lord forever.

Though he brings grief, he will show compassion,
so great is his unfailing love.
For he does not willingly bring affliction or grief to anyone.

Sermon Series

July 3 - August 14, 2024

You think there are problems in the Christian Church today? The devil has been making trouble for the church since its very beginning. That is why the Holy Spirit led the Apostle Paul to write letters to the very first Christian Churches. In this series we'll learn that the problems our churches face today are no different than the problems they faced in the early church. And we'll find the solution to those problems are no different either.
