CALL TO WORSHIP

P: We worship in the name of the Father and of the Son (†) and of the Holy Spirit.

C: Amen.

P: Give thanks to the LORD, for he is good.

C: His love endures forever.

P: Give thanks to the God of gods.

C: His love endures forever.

P: Give thanks to the Lord of lords:

C: His love endures forever.

P: To him who alone does great wonders,

C: His love endures forever.

CONFESSION OF SINS AND FORGIVENESS

P: God is just and loving in all his ways and yet we have sinned against him with our thoughts, words, and actions. Together let us confess the wrong we have done and the good we have failed to do and ask him for forgiveness.

C: Almighty God and Father, I have not loved you with all my heart; I have not loved others as I should. Too often I put my own concerns and priorities above your will and work. Rid me of my selfishness, and take away my guilt. For the sake of Jesus, hear my prayer and be merciful to me, a sinner.

P: God gave his one and only Son to live a perfect life for you, to die on the cross for all your sins, and to rise again to assure you of your salvation. Through him all your sins have been forgiven. You are God's own child and an heir of eternal life in heaven.

C: Thanks be to God! Amen.

PRAYER

P: Gracious God, teach us to love others as you have loved us through your Son Jesus. Help us to be patient and alert to the needs of others, always ready to serve them with the gifts you have given.

C: Amen.

BAPTISM Laura Eve Burke (10:30 am Sunday service)

EPISTLE LESSON 1 Corinthians 4: 1-2

This, then, is how you ought to regard us: as servants of Christ and as those entrusted with the mysteries God has revealed. Now it is required that those who have been given a trust must prove faithful.

GOSPEL LESSON Luke 12: 35-48

“Be dressed ready for service and keep your lamps burning, like servants waiting for their master to return from a wedding banquet, so that when he comes and knocks they can immediately open the door for him. It will be good for those servants whose master finds them watching when he comes. Truly I tell you, he will dress himself to serve, will have them recline at the table and will come and wait on them. It will be good for those servants whose master finds them ready, even if he comes in the middle of the night or toward daybreak. But understand this: If the owner of the house had known at what hour the thief was coming, he would not have let his house be broken into. You also must be ready, because the Son of Man will come at an hour when you do not expect him.”

Peter asked, “Lord, are you telling this parable to us, or to everyone?”

The Lord answered, “Who then is the faithful and wise manager, whom the master puts in charge of his servants to give them their food allowance at the proper time? It will be good for that servant whom the master finds doing so when he returns. Truly I tell you, he will put him in charge of all his possessions. But suppose the servant says to himself, ‘My master is taking a long time in coming,’ and he then begins to beat the other servants, both men and women, and to eat and drink and get drunk. The master of that servant will come on a day when he does not expect him and at an hour he is not aware of. He will cut him to pieces and assign him a place with the unbelievers.

“The servant who knows the master’s will and does not get ready or does not do what the master wants will be beaten with many blows. But the one who does not know and does things deserving punishment will be beaten with few blows. From everyone who has been given much, much will be demanded; and from the one who has been entrusted with much, much more will be asked.”

SERMON TEXT Nehemiah 8: 1-10

All the people came together as one in the square before the Water Gate. They told Ezra the teacher of the Law to bring out the Book of the Law of Moses, which the LORD had commanded for Israel.

So on the first day of the seventh month Ezra the priest brought the Law before the assembly, which was made up of men and women and all who were able to understand. He read it aloud from daybreak till noon as he faced the square before the Water Gate in the presence of the men, women and others who could understand. And all the people listened attentively to the Book of the Law.

Ezra the teacher of the Law stood on a high wooden platform built for the occasion. Beside him on his right stood Mattithiah, Shema, Anaiah, Uriah, Hilkiah and Maaseiah; and on his left were Pedaiah, Mishael, Malkijah, Hashum, Hashbaddanah, Zechariah and Meshulam.

Ezra opened the book. All the people could see him because he was standing above them; and as he opened it, the people all stood up. Ezra praised the LORD, the great God; and all the people lifted their hands and responded, "Amen! Amen!" Then they bowed down and worshiped the LORD with their faces to the ground.

The Levites—Jeshua, Bani, Sherebiah, Jamin, Akkub, Shabbethai, Hodiah, Maaseiah, Kelita, Azariah, Jozabad, Hanan and Pelaiah—instructed the people in the Law while the people were standing there. They read from the Book of the Law of God, making it clear and giving the meaning so that the people understood what was being read.

Then Nehemiah the governor, Ezra the priest and teacher of the Law, and the Levites who were instructing the people said to them all, "This day is holy to the LORD your God. Do not mourn or weep." For all the people had been weeping as they listened to the words of the Law.

Nehemiah said, "Go and enjoy choice food and sweet drinks, and send some to those who have nothing prepared. This day is holy to our Lord. Do not grieve, for the joy of the LORD is your strength."

The Lord's Supper: Today we have the privilege of receiving Christ's body and blood for the assurance of the forgiveness of our sins, and as an expression of the common faith we share. What a blessed means of God's grace the Lord's Supper is! The baptism of Paige Mackenzie Mathews, daughter of Jason & Kourtney Mathews, will be affirmed Sunday afternoon. Pray that this young child may grow in the love and wisdom of our Savior.

Thank You to Jenny Lindee for serving as our organist/ pianist this weekend.

OUR SAVIOR

Serving Our Savior Begins This Weekend! Starting the weekend of August 27-28, we begin our Serving our Savior (S.O.S.) Weeks. During this 3-week period, we are looking to rebuild our service opportunities at Christ Lutheran Church as we come back from Covid. There will be visual displays manned by people eager to tell you about the opportunities available to you. I'd encourage you to consider how you can faithfully use your talents here at Christ. Talk with the men and women who serve here and find just one area to sign up for and get involved in. It doesn't have to be long term. I pray that your service will be a blessing at our congregation and our Savior will be honored through it.

If you are attending the Golf Outing this weekend be sure to check the kiosk in the gathering area for adjusted tee times and also pick up the directions from the golf course to the Tessmanns' house for the dinner afterward.

She now works to help families in the Lake Country area and around the world be well rested and meet their sleep goals. In this presentation, she will share her best tips to help the children in your life - and you - sleep better. Many of the tips she provides will apply to adult sleep as well... all are welcome to come and learn!

That is an amazing outpouring of love. Thanks be to God for that! And thanks again for your partnership in our global Great Commission calling! In Christ, Eric Duwe.
