CALL TO WORSHIP

P: We worship in the name of our Triune God: Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.

C: Amen.

P: Come, let us bow down in worship,

C: Let us kneel before the LORD our Maker;

P: For he is our God and we are the people of his pasture,

C: The flock under his care.

CONFESSION OF SINS AND FORGIVENESS

P: God, our Father, you sent your Son Jesus for the redemption of the world, to restore lost and fallen sinners to your fold. We confess with shame our slowness to learn of him, our failure to follow him, our reluctance to bear the cross.

C: Have mercy on us and forgive us, O Lord.

P: Forgive our poor worship, our neglect of your Word and sacraments, our hesitant witness of Christ, and our imperfect stewardship of your gifts.

C: Have mercy on us and forgive us, O Lord.

P: Forgive our failure to show love and give forgiveness. We have been thoughtless in our judgments. We have been slow to seek reconciliation. We have been unwilling to help our neighbors as we ought.

C: Have mercy on us, O Lord, according to your unfailing love; according to your great compassion, blot out our transgressions. Wash away all our iniquity and cleanse us from our sins. Create in us pure hearts and renew steadfast spirits within us.

P: As God has promised to all who repent and turn to him, all your sins have been forgiven. May he keep you in his grace, lead you to greater faith and obedience, and bring you to live with him forever through Jesus Christ, our Lord.

C: Amen.

“Nothing But the Blood” (Sunday School Children, 10:30 am Sunday Service)

What can wash away my sin? Nothing but the blood of Jesus.

What can make me whole again? Nothing but the blood of Jesus.

Oh! Precious is the flow that makes me white as snow;

No other fount I know, nothing but the blood of Jesus.

Nothing can for sin atone, nothing but the blood of Jesus.

Naught the good that I have done, nothing but the blood of Jesus.

This is all my hope and peace: nothing but the blood of Jesus.

This is all my righteousness: nothing but the blood of Jesus.

Glory! Glory! This I sing: nothing but the blood of Jesus.

All my life my cry shall be: nothing but the blood of Jesus.

RESPONSIVE PASSION HISTORY READING

Leader: The detachment of soldiers with its commander and the Jewish officials bound Jesus and brought him first to Annas, who was the father-in-law of Caiaphas, the high priest that year. Caiaphas was the one who had advised the Jews that it would be good if one man died for the people. Simon Peter and another disciple were following Jesus. Because this disciple was known to the high priest, he went with Jesus into the high priest’s courtyard, but Peter had to wait outside at the door. The other disciple, who was known to the high priest, came back, spoke to the girl on duty there and brought Peter in. It was cold, and the servants and officials stood around a fire they had made to keep warm. Peter also was standing with them, warming himself. Meanwhile, the high priest questioned Jesus about his disciples and his teaching. Jesus replied,

Men: “I have spoken openly to the world. I always taught in the synagogues or at the temple, where all the Jews come together. I said nothing in secret. Why question me? Ask those who heard me. Surely they know what I said.”

Women: When Jesus had said this, one of the officials nearby struck him in the face. He said,

Leader: “Is this the way you answer the high priest?”

Men: “If I said something wrong, testify as to what is wrong. But if I spoke the truth, why did you strike me?”

Leader: Then Annas sent him, still bound, to Caiaphas, the high priest. The chief priests and the whole Sanhedrin were looking for evidence against Jesus so that they could put him to death, but they did not find any. Many testified falsely against him, but their statements did not agree. Then some stood up and gave this false testimony against him:

Cong.: “We heard him say, ‘I will destroy this man-made temple and in three days will build another, not made by man.’”

Women: Yet even then their testimony did not agree. Then the high priest stood up before them and asked Jesus,

Leader: “Are you not going to answer? What is this testimony that these men are bringing against you?”

Women: But Jesus remained silent and gave him no answer. Again the high priest asked him,

Leader: “Are you the Christ, the Son of the Blessed One?”

Men: “I am. And you will see the Son of Man sitting at the right hand of the Mighty One and coming on the clouds of heaven.”

Women: The high priest tore his clothes. He asked,

Leader: “Why do we need any more witnesses? You have heard the blasphemy. What do you think?”

Women: They all condemned him as worthy of death. Then some began to spit at him; they blindfolded him, struck him with their fists, and said, “Prophesy! Who hit you!” And the guards took him and beat him.

Leader: While Peter was below in the courtyard, one of the servant girls of the high priest came by. When she saw Peter warming himself she looked closely at him and said,

Women: You also were with that Nazarene, Jesus.

Leader: But he denied it and said,

Men: “I don’t know or understand what you’re talking about.”

Leader: Just as he was speaking, the rooster crowed. He went out into the entryway. When the servant girl saw him there, she said again to those standing around,

Women: “This fellow is one of them.”

Leader: Again he denied it. After a little while, those standing near said to Peter,

Cong.: “Surely you are one of them, for you are a Galilean.”

Leader: One of the high priest’s servants, a relative of the man whose ear Peter had cut off, challenged him,

Women: “Didn’t I see you with him in the olive grove?”

Leader: Then he began to call down curses on himself, and he swore to them,

Men: “I don’t know this man you’re talking about.”

Leader: Immediately the rooster crowed the second time. The Lord turned and looked straight at Peter. Then Peter remembered the word the Lord had spoken to him,

Men: “Before the rooster crows twice, you will disown me three times.”

Leader: And he went outside and wept bitterly. Very early in the morning, the chief priests, with the elders, the teachers of the law and the whole Sanhedrin, reached a decision. They bound Jesus, led him away and handed him over to Pilate. When Judas, who betrayed him, saw that Jesus was condemned, he was seized with remorse and returned the thirty silver coins to the chief priests and the elders. He said,

Men: “I have sinned, for I have betrayed innocent blood.”

Cong.: “What is that to us? That’s your responsibility.”

Leader: So Judas threw the money into the temple and left. Then he went away and hanged himself. The chief priests picked up the coins and said,

Cong.: “It is against the law to put this into the treasury, since it is blood money.”

Leader: So they decided to use the money to buy the potter’s field as a burial place for foreigners. That is why it has been called the Field of Blood to this day. Then what was spoken by Jeremiah the prophet was fulfilled:

Cong.: “They took the thirty silver coins, the price set on him by the people of Israel, and they used them to buy the potter’s field, as the Lord commanded me.”

SERMON TEXT     1 Corinthians 1: 18-25

For the message of the cross is foolishness to those who are perishing, but to us who are being saved it is the power of God. For it is written:

“I will destroy the wisdom of the wise;
the intelligence of the intelligent I will frustrate.”

Where is the wise person? Where is the teacher of the law? Where is the philosopher of this age? Has not God made foolish the wisdom of the world? For since in the wisdom of God the world through its wisdom did not know him, God was pleased through the foolishness of what was preached to save those who believe. Jews demand signs and Greeks look for wisdom, but we preach Christ crucified: a stumbling block to Jews and foolishness to Gentiles, but to those whom God has called, both Jews and Greeks, Christ the power of God and the wisdom of God. For the foolishness of God is wiser than human wisdom, and the weakness of God is stronger than human strength.

PRAYER

THE LORD'S PRAYER

C: Our Father in heaven, hallowed be your name, your kingdom come, your will be done on earth as in heaven. Give us today our daily bread. Forgive us our sins, as we forgive those who sin against us. Lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For the kingdom, the power, and the glory are yours now and forever. Amen.

WORDS OF INSTITUTION

P: Our Lord Jesus Christ, on the night he was betrayed, took bread; and when he had given thanks, he broke it and gave it to his disciples, saying, "Take and eat; this is my body, which is given for you. Do this in remembrance of me."

Then he took the cup, gave thanks, and gave it to them, saying, "Drink from it, all of you; this is my blood of the new covenant, which is poured out for you for the forgiveness of sins. Do this, whenever you drink it, in remembrance of me."

The peace of the Lord be with you always.

C: Amen.

"Jesus, Lamb of God"

Je - sus, Lamb of God, you take a - way the sin of the world; have mer - cy on us.

The image shows two staves of musical notation in G major (one sharp) and 4/4 time. The melody is simple and hymn-like. The lyrics are written below the notes. The first staff covers the words 'Je - sus, Lamb of God, you take a - way the' and the second staff covers 'sin of the world; have mer - cy on us.' There are rests in the second staff corresponding to the words 'sin of the world;'.

(the song continues on page 9 →)

Je - sus, Lamb of God, you take a - way the sin of the world; have mer - cy on us.
 Je - sus, Lamb of God, you take a - way the sin of the world; grant us your peace.

CLOSING PRAYER AND BLESSING

P: Lord Jesus, you came into this world and brought to us the forgiveness of sins and life forever through the cross. Keep us from thinking we could ever gain your blessing by our own effort. Help us to put aside our pride and vain attempts to earn your gracious gifts. Rather fix our eyes on you and your love shown for us in your living, dying, and rising from the dead, and lead us to serve you with thankfulness and joy all our days.

C: Amen.

P: The grace of our Lord (†) Jesus Christ and the love of God and the fellowship of the Holy Spirit be with you all.

C: Amen.

Midweek Lenten Worship Services

Midweek Lenten Worship Services are held at the usual Wednesday worship times of 12:00 & 6:30 pm at our Pewaukee Campus.

The theme for the 2024 Lenten sermons is “God on Trial.” The unbelieving world has always insisted on putting God on trial. As our society becomes more secular, we Christians are increasingly aware of the many ways in which God—and his people—are judged. Temptations are many in this environment: treating unbelievers as enemies, retreating from the world, even questioning God ourselves. How do we live as people of God in this hostile world? We find our model—and our motivation—in Jesus. This series takes us back to the moments when God was literally on trial before men in the person of Christ. In these inspired episodes, we find forgiveness for us and all people, love for our enemies, strength for our faith, and courage to testify to the truth.

Why not commit yourselves to attend as many of the mid-week Lenten services as you can with your family? You will experience even greater joy in Christ’s victory over death at Easter!

Midweek Lenten Meals

Lunch will be offered after the noon Lenten worship services at about 12:45 pm. Dinner will be offered before the evening services at 5:30 pm. We thank the many volunteers preparing and serving these meals! If you are able to help, please contact Lyette Smith (414-378-4107) for lunches, or Judy Tetting (262-523-1374) for dinners.
