MARK 6:11

Worship Leader: Pastor Timothy Gerbing Preacher: Pastor Richard Krause

Prayer: O God, the Father of all mercy, we sincerely thank you at all times that through your grace you have given us the treasure of your Word, in which we have the knowledge of your dear Son. This is a sure pledge to us of the life and salvation that will be ours in heaven which is prepared for all who remain in true faith and fervent love to the end. O merciful Father, we hope and pray that you will preserve us and make us perfect with all the elect and will keep us united in the mind and image of your dear Son, Jesus Christ, our Lord. Amen.

INVOCATION

P: We worship in the name of our Triune God: Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.

C: Amen.

CONFESSION OF SINS AND FORGIVENESS

P: Dear friends, we hear in in the book of Romans that “all have sinned and fall short of the glory of God, and are justified freely by his grace through the redemption that came by Christ Jesus.” (Romans 3:23-24) For this reason, let us come before God and confess our sins, asking him to forgive us for Jesus’ sake.

(silence for personal reflection)

P: O God, our Father, you sent your one and only Son to live and die and rise again for our salvation. We confess with shame our slowness to learn of him, our failure to follow him, our reluctance to bear the cross.

C: Have mercy on us and forgive us, O Lord.

To avoid disruptions, please silence your cell phones before worship.

P: Forgive our poor worship, our neglect of the means of grace, our hesitant witness of Christ, and our imperfect stewardship of your gifts.

C: Have mercy on us and forgive us, O Lord.

P: Forgive our lack of showing love and forgiveness to others. We have been thoughtless in our judgments. We have been slow to seek reconciliation. We have been unwilling to help our neighbors as we ought.

C: Have mercy on us and forgive us, O Lord.

P: As God has promised to all who repent and turn to him, all your sins are forgiven. May he keep you in his grace by the power of the Holy Spirit, lead you to greater faith and obedience, and bring you to live with him forever, through Jesus Christ, our Lord.

C: Amen.

PRAYER

P: O Lord—our Maker, Redeemer, and Comforter—we are gathered here in your presence to hear and learn your holy Word. We pray that you would open our hearts by your Holy Spirit, that through the reading and preaching we may believe in Jesus and grow day by day in love for you and for others. In his name we pray.

C: Amen.

OLD TESTAMENT LESSON Ezekiel 2: 1-5

[The LORD] said to me, “Son of man, stand up on your feet and I will speak to you.” As he spoke, the Spirit came into me and raised me to my feet, and I heard him speaking to me.

He said: “Son of man, I am sending you to the Israelites, to a rebellious nation that has rebelled against me; they and their ancestors have been in revolt against me to this very day. The people to whom I am sending you are obstinate and stubborn. Say to them, ‘This is what the Sovereign Lord says.’ And whether they listen or fail to listen—for they are a rebellious people—they will know that a prophet has been among them.”

GOSPEL LESSON Mark 6: 1-13

Jesus left there and went to his hometown, accompanied by his disciples. When the Sabbath came, he began to teach in the synagogue, and many who heard him were amazed.

“Where did this man get these things?” they asked. “What’s this wisdom that has been given him? What are these remarkable miracles he is performing? Isn’t this the carpenter? Isn’t this Mary’s son and the brother of James, Joseph, Judas and Simon? Aren’t his sisters here with us?” And they took offense at him.

Jesus said to them, “A prophet is not without honor except in his own town, among his relatives and in his own home.” He could not do any miracles there, except lay his hands on a few sick people and heal them. He was amazed at their lack of faith.

Then Jesus went around teaching from village to village. Calling the Twelve to him, he began to send them out two by two and gave them authority over impure spirits.

These were his instructions: “Take nothing for the journey except a staff—no bread, no bag, no money in your belts. Wear sandals but not an extra shirt. Whenever you enter a house, stay there until you leave that town. And if any place will not welcome you or listen to you, leave that place and shake the dust off your feet as a testimony against them.”

They went out and preached that people should repent. They drove out many demons and anointed many sick people with oil and healed them.

SERMON TEXT 2 Corinthians 12: 1-12

I must go on boasting. Although there is nothing to be gained, I will go on to visions and revelations from the Lord. I know a man in Christ who fourteen years ago was caught up to the third heaven. Whether it was in the body or out of the body I do not know—God knows. And I know that this man—whether in the body or apart from the body I do not know, but God knows—was caught up to paradise and heard inexpressible things, things that no one is permitted to tell. I will boast about a man like that, but I will not boast about myself, except about my weaknesses. Even if I should choose to boast, I would not be a fool, because I would be speaking the truth. But I refrain, so no one will think more of me than is warranted by what I do or say, or because of these surpassingly great revelations. Therefore, in order to keep me from becoming conceited, I was given a thorn in my flesh, a messenger of Satan, to torment me. Three times I pleaded with the Lord to take it away from me. But he said to me, “My grace is sufficient for you, for my power is made perfect in weakness.” Therefore I will boast all the more gladly about my weaknesses, so that Christ’s power may rest on me. That is why, for Christ’s sake, I delight in weaknesses, in insults, in hardships, in persecutions, in difficulties. For when I am weak, then I am strong.

I have made a fool of myself, but you drove me to it. I ought to have been commended by you, for I am not in the least inferior to the “super-apostles,” even though I am nothing. I persevered in demonstrating among you the marks of a true apostle, including signs, wonders and miracles.

THE NICENE CREED

We believe in one God, the Father, the Almighty, maker of heaven and earth,
of all that is, seen and unseen.

We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ, the only Son of God, eternally begotten of the Father,
God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, of one being with the Father.

Through him all things were made.

For us and for our salvation, he came down from heaven, was incarnate of the Holy Spirit and the virgin Mary,
and became fully human.

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate.
He suffered death and was buried.
On the third day he rose again in accordance with the Scriptures.
He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead,
and his kingdom will have no end.

We believe in the Holy Spirit,
the Lord, the giver of life,
who proceeds from the Father and the Son,
who in unity with the Father and the Son is worshiped and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets.
We believe in one holy Christian and apostolic Church.
We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins.
We look for the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

CLOSING PRAYER AND BLESSING

P: Lord God, we thank you for the forgiveness we have received here in this sacrament and for the precious gift you have given us in your Holy Word. As you granted your prophets strength to resist the temptations of the devil and courage to proclaim repentance, give us the desire to walk with you closely and follow your will faithfully, even into suffering and death. Help us to cling to your Word and obey it, that we may be instruments of your redeeming love through your Son, Jesus Christ our Lord.

C: Amen.

P: The grace of our Lord (†) Jesus Christ and the love of God and the fellowship of the Holy Spirit be with you all.
