

Nothing Left but God

Scripture: Genesis 47:13-28

Introduction

Most people measure success by what they possess. We evaluate prosperity by the size of a bank account, the amount of property owned, or the level of security we have accumulated. Yet history has a way of reminding us how quickly those things can disappear...

Three Realities When Nothing Is Left but God

1. The Price of S_____

Genesis 47:13-19

- Money is a useful servant but a terrible savior.
- Earthly resources eventually run out.
- The famine exposed the illusion of self-sufficiency.
- True security is found in God, not possessions.

Key Scriptures:

Luke 12:15

Matthew 6:19-21

John 15:5

2. The Plan of S_____

Genesis 47:20-26

- Joseph managed the crisis rather than reacting to it.
- Wise stewardship prepares for future needs.
- Faithfulness in small things leads to greater responsibility.
- God's providence often works through faithful planning.

Key Scriptures:

Proverbs 21:5

Luke 16:10

Ephesians 2:8-9

3. The Prosperity of God's P_____

Genesis 47:27-28

- While Egypt was losing, Israel was gaining.
- God's promises are not limited by difficult circumstances.
- Believers can prosper spiritually in the midst of trials.
- In Christ, it is possible to lose everything and still gain more than you lost.

Key Scriptures:

Genesis 12:2

Romans 8:28

Philippians 3:7-8

2 Corinthians 4:8-9