

New Covenant, New Life

Hebrews 10:19-26

- 1) The New Covenant of Christ gives us full, everlasting access to God (10:19-21)
 - a) Our new access comes through Christ, no longer blocked by a veil
 - b) We are confident to enter God's presence through Christ's death
 - c) Our perfect High Priest is superior to Judaism's Levitical priests
- 2) Having been forgiven of sins & guilt, our lives are starkly different (10:22-25)
 - a) We draw near to God daily (22)
 - i) With a sincere heart, assured of our acceptance by God
 - ii) Having been sprinkled clean by Christ's sacrifice
 - b) We hold fast to our confession of hope in Christ (23)
 - i) Our hope in Christ remains steadfast & maturing
 - ii) We rest in Christ's faithfulness to us
 - c) We consider how we might encourage others, refusing to forsake our corporate assembly of fellowship & worship (24-25)
 - d) We see the day of Christ drawing nearer, longing for His return (cf. 9:28)
- 3) To sin willfully after enlightenment is fatal to our souls (10:26)

