

You can be having a party from all appearances on the outside, but the very thing that makes the party fun and enjoyable is gone.

 Everyone ultimately gets to a point when they just run out...

 When you are running on empty, remember that your problems are always God's possibilities!

Admit you have a problem: Rather than keeping up appearances and hiding your problems – ask for help.

- If you are running on empty or life seems to be bottoming out on you please talk to someone.
- John 2:3, Jesus' mother simply said, "they had no wine".
- John 20:29; Hab 2:4; Heb 11:6-8

In John 2:4-5, "Jesus said to her, "Woman, what does your concern have to do with Me? My hour has not yet come.

- Listen to what Mary said, "whatever He tells you to do, do it."
- Matt 15:26-28
- Rejection does not mean denial.
- Insults from people or disrespect does not mean that your miracle cannot come to pass. It may just be a test.

Do whatever Jesus tells you to do to fix the problem. (John 2:5-10) It is that bold step of faith that changes the situation.

- What is God asking you to do today in order to bring a change to your situation or to bring a miracle to your life?
- Are you willing to prepare your vessel for the visitation of the Lord? You see, the vessel needs to be prepared in obedience for new wine to flow.

In John 2:6-8 What was it about these stone jars, that caused Jesus to turn to them?

- Proximity
- Availability
- Compatibility and consecration
- Receivability or Capacity
- Get Ready to be Known for the New Wine! John 4:46a