Prayer for the Week:

"Lord, I desire to not just know what it means to be seen as the righteousness of you but I want to experience the peace that I believe will come from this fundamental truth. Lord, remind me of the finished work that you did on my behalf on the cross before I was able to muster up, save up, or obey enough to earn your favor. I pray that this week I would walk in the promise of God that has been declared so boldly that I am the free, justified, ransomed, and redeemed to be used by you to bring this knowledge to those you have placed in my life for a purpose. Empower me to apply this Truth not just when I am on the mountain but to speak it over my life when temptation comes and certainly when I sin against you. May this week be the beginning of a tilling of the soil of my soul enabling me to believe there is freedom from my past, there is courage to be exercised in my present, and there is a hope for my future. Amen."
