Get two people to read: Acts 1:4-11 & Hebrews 10:25

- Acts 1:4-11 - Jesus instructs His disciples to wait for the Holy Spirit, promises them power to be His witnesses, and then ascends into heaven with the promise that He will return again.
- Hebrews 10:25 - Believers are encouraged not to neglect gathering together, but to encourage one another even more as the return of Christ draws near.

Okay, now let us talk about this:

(Homecell Leader please feel free to ask members any other questions that can drive the point of home keeping in mind Pentecost Sunday that is on the way.)

- In Acts 1:4-11, why do you think Jesus told the disciples to wait for the Holy Spirit before going out?
- What does it mean to you personally that we are living in the “last dispensation” before Jesus returns?
- Pastor said, “Timing is everything.” How can we become more aware of God’s timing in our lives instead of wasting time?
- What are some practical ways we can be “living witnesses” for Christ in our everyday lives?
- The message said, “Anything that leads you to withdraw is not a word from God.” What are some things that try to pull Christians away from purpose and church life today?
- How have you experienced the Holy Spirit empowering you to do something you could not do in your own strength?
- Why do you think the church should be vibrant, growing, and dynamic, especially in the times we are living in?
- Hebrews 10:25 encourages believers not to neglect gathering together. Why is building church so important in today’s world?
- The message challenged us to ask questions from a place of hunger, not comfort. What is one area in your walk with God where you want to grow hungrier? (This can be a question that is not answered out loud.)
- As we see the days approaching and Jesus coming soon, what is one practical step you can take to “run boldly” and become more involved in God’s Kingdom?
