Title: "Manifesting & Managing the Blessing In These Days & Times, Pt. 9"

A _____ is not just what I think — it is the lens through which all of reality is filtered. I don't just have a paradigm—my _____ has me.

The Paradigm of _____ sees a reality wherein all the _____, all the _____, and all the _____ belong to someone else.

Therefore our posture is _____ (_____ or _____).

The Paradigm of Pitifulness is at its core a double _____ crisis — I don't know _____ is standing in front of me, and I don't know _____ I am. Until both are settled, I will keep whining & tantruming about my _____.

The ten spies spent forty days cataloguing every _____ between them and the blessing. This looks like wisdom, but it is actually _____ dressed in _____. They became experts on what was _____ them and strangers to what was _____ them.

The man at the pool had been there _____ years. That is not a visit. That is not a season. The porch had become his _____ and the pool had become his _____.

When Jesus asked "Do you want to be made well?" the man answered with three things: a resource _____, a system _____, and a competitive _____. The one thing missing from his answer was _____.

Jesus did not use the _____. He bypassed the _____ entirely. The man started the day on a _____ and ended it on his _____. That is what happens when the Paradigm of Pitifulness breaks — I stop waiting for the system to be _____, or to _____ and I pick up my _____.
