Psalms 139:1-6

O LORD, You have searched me and known me.
You know my sitting down and my rising up; You understand my thought afar off. You comprehend my path and my lying down, And are acquainted with all my ways. For there is not a word on my tongue, But behold, O LORD, You know it altogether. You have hedged me behind and before,
And laid Your hand upon me. Such knowledge is too wonderful for me; It is high, I cannot attain it.

Psalms 139:7-12

Where can I go from Your Spirit? Or where can I flee from Your presence? If I ascend into heaven, You are there; If I make my bed in hell, behold, You are there. If I take the wings of the morning, And dwell in the uttermost parts of the sea, Even there Your hand shall lead me, And Your right hand shall hold me. If I say, "Surely the darkness shall fall on me," Even the night shall be light about me; Indeed, the darkness shall not hide from You, But the night shines as the day; The darkness and the light are both alike to You.

Psalms 139:13-18

For You formed my inward parts; You covered me in my mother's womb. I will praise You, for I am fearfully and wonderfully made; Marvelous are Your works, And that my soul knows very well. My frame was not hidden from You, When I was made in secret, And skillfully wrought in the lowest parts of the earth. Your eyes saw my substance, being yet unformed. And in Your book they all were written, The days fashioned for me, When as yet there were none of them. How precious also are Your thoughts to me, O God! How great is the sum of them! If I should count them, they would be more in number than the sand; When I awake, I am still with You.

Psalms 139:19-24

Oh, that You would slay the wicked, O God! Depart from me, therefore, you bloodthirsty men. For they speak against You wickedly; Your enemies take Your name in vain. Do I not hate them, O LORD, who hate You? And do I not loathe those who rise up against You? I hate them with perfect hatred; I count them my enemies. Search me, O God, and know my heart; Try me, and know my anxieties; And see if there is any wicked way in me, And lead me in the way everlasting.

EWA, OAHU (HawaiiNewsNow) - A 13-year-old girl has been released pending investigation after the death of her infant child.

The teen was arrested for second-degree murder after her 1-day-old baby was found dead in a trash can, police sources said.

The infant died in February, but the medical examiner's office recently classified the death as a homicide.

The girl was arrested Thursday after turning herself in at the Kapolei police station.

She allegedly put her baby in the dumpster in an attempt to keep her pregnancy a secret.

Pelosi Overseas Abortion on First Day

January 04, 2019

New Speaker Nancy Pelosi (D-Calif.) said no to the border wall -- but yes to tearing down the one between taxpayers and abortion. That was the state of play on Day 1 of the 116th Congress, a rude awakening for any American who cares about the sanctity of life. And while Pelosi may have the U.S. House, she doesn't have the White House -- a fact the president was quick to point out.

When the Democrats' first act in the majority was to try to re-open the taxpayer pipeline to overseas abortion groups Wednesday, the president let them know where their bill was headed: nowhere. In his first Statement of Administration Policy of the divided government, President Trump made it quite clear that the only thing the Left would get out of their legislation to overturn the Mexico City Policy was a veto. In a shot across the new speaker's bow, the White House issued this warning:

"The administration opposes passage of H.R. 21, the Consolidated Appropriations Act 2019... and H.J. Res. 1... [which] includes $700 million more than requested for the United Nations, including restoring funding for the United Nations Population Fund. The bill would also undermine the President's Mexico City Policy (Presidential Memorandum of January 23, 2017), which prohibits the funding of foreign nongovernmental organizations that promote or perform abortions."

LIVE ACTION

“Any attempt to paint certain lives as more valuable than other lives because of subjective things like feeling pain, I don’t even see why, even from a Republican or conservative point of view, that should be the deciding factor. There are human beings who are full-grown adults who have genetic conditions in which they cannot properly feel pain; that doesn’t mean you can kill them, obviously. The root of life is life itself, not the capacity to feel nerve endings.”

Abortion

Gender

“In the past three months, 216 babies were born in a handful of villages across northern India, according to a recent report. Not a single one of those babies was a girl. This was no crazy coincidence or fluke. Indian baby girls are being aborted simply because of their gender. For a family living in poverty, a house full of sons is deemed more profitable, since they are considered the main breadwinners. Afraid of what a daughter will cost, many families choose to simply never have one.”

Job 5:2

The Book of Psalms was gradually collected and originally unnamed, perhaps due to the great variety of material. It came to be known as Sepher Tehillim—"Book of Praises"—because almost every psalm contains some note of praise to God. The Septuagint uses the Greek word Psalmoi as its title for this book, meaning poems sung to the accompaniment of musical instruments. It also calls it the Psalterium ("a collection of songs"), and this word is the basis for the term Psalter. The Latin title is Liber Psalmorum, "Book of Psalms."

THE AUTHOR OF PSALMS

Although critics have challenged the historical accuracy of the superscriptions regarding authorship, the evidence is strongly in their favor. Almost half (seventy-three) of the psalms are designated as Davidic: 3—9; 11—32; 34—41; 51—65; 68—70; 86; 101; 103; 108—110; 122; 124; 131; 133; and 138—145. David's wide experience as shepherd, musician, warrior, and king (1011—971 B.C.) is reflected in these psalms. The New Testament reveals that the anonymous psalms 1 and 95 were also written by this king whose name means "Beloved of Yahweh" (Acts 13:36, 42). In addition to the seventy-three
