Special Prayer Request 9th of Av (Aug 12-13)

The 9th of Av, Tisha b'Av, commemorates a list of catastrophes so severe it seems that God set a day for suffering. You can learn about these historical events here. But It is also around the time that Yeshua went into the wilderness and was baptized by John (Matthew 3:13-17), redeeming the wilderness experience and even our suffering and sadness. It is traditionally a day of fasting and prayer but a reminder that our God can redeem us from the worst of our history. This year, we are asking that people spend time praying specifically for Israel and they brace for another looming attack from Hamas, Hezbollah, and Iran.
