Join Us in Israel | March 15–24, 2027

We are planning our Israel Tour for March 15–24, 2027, open to members, regular attenders, and those connected with our small groups. Tours are resuming in Israel, and groups are already planning travel for 2027. While the security situation remains fluid, we will continue to monitor conditions closely and will travel only if we believe it is safe and wise to do so. If you've been waiting for an opportunity to experience the land of the Bible, we would love to have you join us!

GOD SO LOVED

Rabbi Jacob Rosenberg

What does God's love do for people who are still in the dark?

Sermon Questions

Read John 3:1–8 | What Must Happen

Do I believe that I need to be born from above, and that only God can give me new life?

Read John 3:9–15 | How does God make it possible?

Can I really believe that God wants to save me?

Read John 3:16–18 | Why Would God Do This?

Can I believe that God loves me enough to give His Son to save me?

Read John 3:19–21 | Why Would Anyone Remain in the Darkness?

Am I willing to come into the light, or am I still holding on to something I would rather keep in the dark?

Do I love the darkness more than I want His light?
