OUR PAYER FOCUS TODAY IS HOLOCAUST SURVIVORS AND THEIR FAMILIES

Yom HaShoah was observed on Wednesday, April 7-8 it is a memorial for the approximately six million Jewish people who perished in the Holocaust.

PRAYER POINTS

Pray for that the Lord would give beauty for ashes and the oil of joy for mourning to every Holocaust survivor and their families and generations, that He would encounter them with His loving-kindness and His healing power and draw their hearts to Him. (Isa. 61:1-3)

Pray that the Lord would pour out His spirit on the least of these in Israel (poor, widow, fatherless, brokenhearted, etc.) and bring them into His Kingdom, and that He would raise up and strengthen believers to minister to these ones. (Isa. 61:1-3)

Pray that the Lord would give the Jewish community spiritual wisdom and revelation, enlightening the eyes of their hearts to know the hope of their calling in Him as His children, made and chosen by Him and for Him to be a light to the nations. (Eph. 1:16-18)

Pray that the Lord would awaken the hearts of the body of Messiah/Church to not be ignorant nor arrogant (wise in our own eyes) (Rom. 11:25-26) related to God's heart for the Jewish people, that we would partner with the Lord as watchmen in prayer and in love for His people Israel. (Isa. 62:1,6- 7)
