Rabbi Jacob Rosenberg PhD

ADAT IS...

Reflecting the Jewishness of Yeshua

A House of Prayer for all Nations

Centered on the Biblical Calendar

Spirit-filled blended worship made up of contemporary music and liturgy

A congregation of people who are discovering who we are, becoming who we are created to be, and investing in God's kingdom.

TITHES & OFFERINGS

Most importantly you can partner with Adat through prayer.

You can give to Adat Hatikvah in the box near the entrance, online, our app, and by mail.

TODAYS READINGS

Torah: Lev 10:1-5

Haf: 1 Sam 20:30-34

Br't: Acts 5:1-11

John's vision helps us understand the continuity of Prophecy and how to apply the concepts to our lives. However, no other book in the Bible has been more misunderstood than the book of Revelation. Rev 15 gives us an introduction to the last plagues God will send as judgment

Rev 15:1-4

Rev 15:5-8

Read Rev 15:1-4; Exodus 15:1-18;

- Compare the victory over the Beast to the victory over the Egyptians
- Read Psalm Psalm 111; Psalm 139; Psalm 86
 - What is great and marvelous about God's judgments

Read Rev 15:5-8; Exod 40:34; 1 Kgs 8:10; Isa. 6:4; Ezek. 10:4; 44:4

- What pattern does God's glory follow? What does the presence of God mean in the Temple?

SUMMARY

Connecting the Arabian Sea, the Gulf of Oman, and the Persian Gulf, the nation of Oman sits in a strategic position. Seas in the north and east and deserts in the west and south, though, have often led to isolation. With an economy heavily dependent on declining oil reserves, Oman has begun to focus increasingly on tourism. The diverse landscape of untouched coastlines, deserts, and mountains has become a unique destination for travelers. Spared of much militant Islamist violence, Oman enjoys significantly more personal freedom and political stability than the surrounding area.

In 1970 Qaboos bin Said Al Said overthrew his father, and he ruled until 2020 as the sultan in this benevolent absolute monarchy. His modernization program and moderate foreign policy have opened Oman's doors to the outside world and led to overall good relations in the Middle East. Over 25% of the population is expatriate, bringing many foreign influences to bear, but Oman still holds its Arab and Ibadi/Sunni Islamic identity, as it has since the days of Muhammad. After the death of Sultan Qaboos in January 2020, his cousin Haitham bin Tariq Al Said succeeded him as sultan.

Due to the massive expatriate influence in Oman, people are free to practice varying faiths, and the government has even given land for places of worship. But, it remains illegal to share the Gospel with Muslims. Islam remains the state religion, claiming roughly 89% of the population. The nearly 3% that claim Christianity are predominantly part of the expatriate community. Very few Omanis are disciples of Yeshua, but the number is growing. There remains 77% of the Omani population that have yet to be reached with the Gospel. Numerous media strategies are being pursued through Christian radio, the internet, and mobile phones, and over 2,000 Omanis have the opportunity to hear about Yeshua each year while
