Call To Worship #452

"Open the Eyes of My Heart"

OPEN THE EYES

Open the eyes of my heart, Lord. Open the eyes of my heart;

I want to see you; I want to see you.

Open the eyes of my heart, Lord. Open the eyes of my heart.

I want to see you; I want to see you.

To see you high and lifted up, shining in the light of your glory.

Pour out your power and love as we sing "Holy, holy, holy."

Holy, holy, holy. Holy, holy, holy. Holy, holy, holy, I want to see you.

Morning Prayer & The Lord's Prayer

Elder Alva Cromartie

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name, thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors;
and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil.
For Thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever. Amen.

Today's Flowers

The Chapel flowers are given to the glory of God by the Chapel Flower Guild.

The Sanctuary flowers this Sunday are given to the Glory of God and with grateful hearts lovingly given in honor of our mother, Maude Bledsoe, in celebration of her birthday by her children, grandchildren and great-grandchildren.

* A Musical Note from Dr. Marcia Mervin

This month's preludes and postludes are chosen in observance of Black History Month. They were composed by Dr. Dennis Janzer (b. 1954), an award-winning composer and now retired "Organist Emeritus" at St. Mary's Episcopal Cathedral in Memphis, TN.

From the composer:

"Spirituals come from many different times and places, but most come from the African American experience. They are folk songs, often of a religious character, passed down through a vocal tradition and only written down after many decades of use, the first time around 1840. For this reason, there are many versions of any given spiritual. This is part of their magic, somehow changing with each different usage."

May this music remind us of the rich heritage, triumphs, and adversities that are part of our nation's 250 years of history.

The Session has called a congregational meeting for Sunday, February 15, immediately following the 11 am worship service. Please make every effort to attend.

Sanctuary flower donors are needed for March 29 (Palm Sunday),
April 5 (Easter Sunday) & April 12.

Contact Debra Chestnutt at debra@chestnutt.com or (910) 818-9006
