Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name,

Today's Flowers

The Chapel flowers are given to the glory of God
by the Chapel Flower Guild.

The Sanctuary flowers this Sunday are given to the glory of God and in honor of Dr. David Cagle as he begins his pastoral ministry with our congregation, through contributions to the Flower Fund.

Today's Prelude and Postlude are offered in honor of Dr. Mike Garrett, with deep gratitude for his faithful service to First Presbyterian Church over the past eleven years. It has been both a joy and a true privilege to serve this congregation alongside Mike and under his thoughtful leadership throughout these years.

"I Sing the Mighty Power of God" has long been one of Mike's favorite hymns, and today's musical selections are based on the beloved hymn tune Ellacombe, chosen at his request. It is my hope that these pieces will serve as a small expression of appreciation for his ministry, friendship, and unwavering support of the music ministry.

As I will be away the next two Sundays, today will be our final Sunday in worship together. Mike, thank you for your kindness, encouragement, and faithful leadership. I pray that God will richly bless you as you begin this new chapter called retirement. May you enjoy precious time with your family, discover new opportunities for joy and renewal, and experience the peace, rest, and fulfillment you so richly deserve. May God's presence continue to guide and sustain you in all the days ahead.

With gratitude and every good wish,
Marcia Heirman Mervin

The budget for sanctuary flowers is very limited, and we have always relied on members of the congregation to sponsor memorials or honorariums.

We understand that times are difficult and that the cost of flowers continues to rise. If you're able, consider partnering with friends or family to honor someone special in your life—perhaps for a birthday, anniversary, in memory of loved ones, or even to mark the start of a new school year.

If sponsoring an arrangement isn't possible right now, you might consider contributing to the Flower Fund by placing an envelope in the offering plate marked "Flower Fund." Any amount is truly appreciated.

If you have questions, please feel free to contact Debra Chestnutt at 910-818-9006 or debra@chestnutt.com.

Considering a monetary gift to honor Dr. Garrett's retirement?

If you're considering a monetary gift to celebrate Dr. Garrett's retirement, there are two ways to contribute. You may write a check either to First Presbyterian Church or directly to Michael W. Garrett. Here's what distinguishes the options: Gifts made out to the Church are tax-deductible for the donor but will count as taxable income for Dr. Garrett. In contrast, checks payable directly to Michael Garrett are not tax-deductible for the donor, yet are not taxable to him. All direct contributions will be gathered and presented to Dr. Garrett at the retirement luncheon, while the Church will issue a separate check to him covering all honorariums it receives on his behalf. If you have questions about the tax implications, please consult your tax advisor.
