I. WHAT'S THE BIG IDEA? Isaiah 55:1-13

God continues to promise restoration to those with shattered lives. His invitation is to accept the free gift of grace instead of the working for the unattainable.

II. Four Major Themes In Isaiah 55:

- A. What I have for you is better than what you can earn for yourself.
- B. The High Road opens doors to opportunities you can't imagine.
- C. The Word of God accomplishes the purposes for which it was sent.
- D. The promise of God is blessing beyond struggle.

- III. What I have for you is better than what you can earn for yourself.
- A. Everyone who is thirsty is invited!
  - B. You can't buy what I give freely!
  - C. Why buy junk food when you can have steak for free!
  - D. Listen – so that your soul may live.
  - E. I will treat you like I treated David!
  - F. I will send you people that you have never heard of.
  - G. The Glory of God will rest on you.
