

Immanuel: Among Us - 28
Mending Fences
When Offended
September 16, 2018

I. WHAT'S THE BIG IDEA? Luke 7:18-30

Relationships are so difficult that even Jesus and John the Baptist have interpersonal conflict. We learn from them how to navigate disappointment and heartache without taking offense.

II. WHAT WE CAN LEARN FROM THESE TWO GREAT MEN.

A. Pay attention when God prepares you for the future.

- B. Take Responsibility for your own heart condition – regardless of what others do to you.

- C. Treat others well - even when they don't treat you well.

- D. Respond gently to offended people so they may be reconciled.

- E. Honor the honorable - even if they are having a bad day.

- F. Remember the Mission.
