

The Legacy of Faith - Genesis 23-25:11

1. Genesis 23:2, 1 Thessalonians 4:13-18 - How can we grieve with hope like Abraham, honoring God while also embracing the reality of loss?

2. Genesis 23:4, Hebrews 11:13-16 - Abraham described himself as a sojourner and foreigner. How does seeing ourselves as citizens of heaven shape the way we live today?

3. Genesis 24:3-4 - Abraham set clear convictions for Isaac's marriage. What convictions are you passing down to the next generation, and how are you modeling them?

4. Genesis 24:12-14, Proverbs 3:5-6 - Abraham's servant prayed specifically for God's guidance. How can you invite God into your daily decisions with the same dependence?

5. Genesis 24:15, 21 - Before the servant finished praying, Rebekah appeared. Where have you seen God's providence clearly at work in your life?

6. Genesis 24:58, Joshua 24:15 - Rebekah said, "I will go." What step of obedience is God calling you to take, even if the future is uncertain?

7. Genesis 25:5-11, Matthew 16:25 - Abraham finished well by intentionally handing the promise forward. What legacy of faith are you preparing to leave for others?
