

Judgment and Mercy - Genesis 19:1-38

1. Where in your life are you sitting “at the gate of Sodom” like Lot—close to compromise, but trying to appear righteous?
2. Lot hesitated, and God’s mercy had to pull him out. In what area of your life is God calling you to stop lingering and start moving? Is there a time in your life where you hesitated and God’s mercy pulled you out?
3. What does Lot’s wife’s story teach you about the danger of longing for the past? What are you still tempted to look back at?
4. In what ways do you see yourself living in “the valley between two worlds”—the kingdom of God and the culture of the world?
5. Do people around you recognize your faith, or are they surprised when you talk about Jesus?
6. How does this passage challenge your understanding of God’s mercy and judgment working together?
7. What decisions are you making now that could leave a mark on the next generation—for better or worse?
