

A vibrant, fiery dove, symbolizing the Holy Spirit, is depicted in the center of the image. The dove is composed of bright orange and yellow flames, with its wings spread wide. It is set against a dark, atmospheric background of a gothic cathedral's interior, characterized by intricate stone arches and columns. The overall scene is dimly lit, with the primary light source being the fire of the dove. The text "THE HOLY SPIRIT" is overlaid on the image in a bold, white, sans-serif font with a black outline, positioned horizontally across the middle of the dove's body.

1 Corinthians 13:8–12 ESV

<sup>8</sup> Love never ends. As for prophecies, they will pass away; as for tongues, they will cease; as for knowledge, it will pass away. <sup>9</sup> For we know in part and we prophesy in part, <sup>10</sup> but when the perfect comes, the partial will pass away. <sup>11</sup> When I was a child, I spoke like a child, I thought like a child, I reasoned like a child. When I became a man, I gave up childish ways. <sup>12</sup> For now we see in a mirror dimly, but then face to face. Now I know in part; then I shall know fully, even as I have been fully known.

1 Corinthians 12:7 ESV

<sup>7</sup> To each is given the manifestation of the Spirit for the common good.

1 Corinthians 14:3–5 ESV

<sup>3</sup> On the other hand, the one who prophesies speaks to people for their upbuilding and encouragement and consolation. <sup>4</sup> The one who speaks in a tongue builds up himself, but the one who prophesies builds up the church. <sup>5</sup> Now I want you all to speak in tongues, but even more to prophesy. The one who prophesies is greater than the one who speaks in tongues, unless someone interprets, so that the church may be built up.

1 Corinthians 14:26 ESV

<sup>26</sup> What then, brothers? When you come together, each one has a hymn, a lesson, a revelation, a tongue, or an interpretation. Let all things be done for building up.
