

A dramatic, low-angle shot of a dark, gothic cathedral interior. The architecture is composed of intricate, dark stone arches and columns that recede into the distance, creating a sense of depth and grandeur. The lighting is very low, with the primary light source being a large, vibrant, and intense fire in the center of the frame. This fire is shaped like a dove with its wings spread wide, a traditional symbol of the Holy Spirit. The flames are bright orange and yellow, with some sparks and embers drifting around it. The overall mood is solemn and powerful.
