Deuteronomy 30:19–20_(NKJV)

I call heaven and earth as witnesses today against you, that I have set before you life and death, blessing and cursing; therefore choose life, that both you and your descendants may live;²⁰ that you may love the LORD your God, that you may obey His voice, and that you may cling to Him, for He is your life and the length of your days; and that you may dwell in the land which the LORD swore to your fathers, to Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob, to give them.”

Hebrews 3:12-14 (NKJV)

Beware, brethren, lest there be in any of you an evil heart of unbelief in departing from the living God;
¹³ but exhort one another daily, while it is called
“Today,” lest any of you be hardened through the deceitfulness of sin. ¹⁴ For we have become partakers of Christ if we hold the beginning of our confidence steadfast to the end...

Today is no respecter of person.

A detailed illustration of a snowy mountain village at night. The scene is filled with snow-covered roofs, trees, and hills. A prominent church with a tall steeple is on the left, and a large, cozy cabin with a warm glow from its windows is on the right. The sky is dark with falling snow and a few stars. The overall mood is peaceful and serene.

You can't steward today, tomorrow.

Exodus 8:8–10_(NKJV)

Then Pharaoh called for Moses and Aaron, and said, “Entreat the LORD that He may take away the frogs from me and from my people; and I will let the people go, that they may sacrifice to the LORD.”⁹ And Moses said to Pharaoh, “Accept the honor of saying when I shall intercede for you, for your servants, and for your people, to destroy the frogs from you and your houses, that they may remain in the river only.”¹⁰ So he said, “Tomorrow.”

A whimsical, dark winter village at night. The scene is filled with snow-covered roofs and warm, glowing lights from the buildings, creating a cozy atmosphere. The sky is dark with falling snow and a few stars. The overall mood is serene and magical.

You delay your purpose and destiny when you learn how to live with the frogs.

A dark, atmospheric night scene of a snowy village. In the foreground, a large, cozy cabin with a gabled roof and warm interior lights is visible. The middle ground shows a cluster of smaller houses and a prominent church with a tall steeple. The background features rolling hills and a starry night sky with falling snow. The overall mood is quiet and contemplative.

It's hard to walk in the spirit when you walk with people who live contrary to God's Word.

A dark, atmospheric night scene of a snowy village. The sky is filled with stars and soft, glowing light spots. In the foreground, a snow-covered hillside leads down to a cluster of houses. The houses have dark roofs and some have warm, yellow lights glowing from their windows. A prominent church spire is visible on the left side of the village. The overall mood is quiet and serene.

Deuteronomy 30:19_(NKJV)

...I have set before you life and death, blessing and cursing; therefore choose life, that both you and your descendants may live;

A detailed illustration of a snowy mountain village at night. The scene is set in a valley with snow-covered hills and mountains in the background. In the foreground, a large, cozy wooden house with a gabled roof and warm interior lights is visible. To the left, a church with a tall steeple and a small bell tower stands on a hill. The sky is dark with falling snow and a few stars. The overall atmosphere is peaceful and serene.

Destiny is not a product of coincidence...

Destiny is a product of decisions.

Exodus 14:10–13^(NKJV)

And when Pharaoh drew near, the children of Israel lifted their eyes, and behold, the Egyptians marched after them. So they were very afraid, and the children of Israel cried out to the LORD. ¹¹ Then they said to Moses, “Because there were no graves in Egypt, have you taken us away to die in the wilderness? Why have you so dealt with us, to bring us up out of Egypt? ¹² Is this not the word that we told you in Egypt, saying, ‘Let us alone that we may serve the Egyptians’? For it would have been better for us to serve the Egyptians than that we should die in the wilderness.”

Israel preferred a comfortable bondage instead of an uncomfortable freedom.

A dark, atmospheric night scene of a snowy village. The sky is filled with stars and a few wispy clouds. The ground is covered in snow, and several houses with warm, glowing lights from their windows and doors are scattered across the landscape. The overall mood is quiet and serene.

Exodus 14:13^(NKJV)

¹³ ...the Egyptians whom you see today, you shall see again no more forever.
