2 KINGS 3

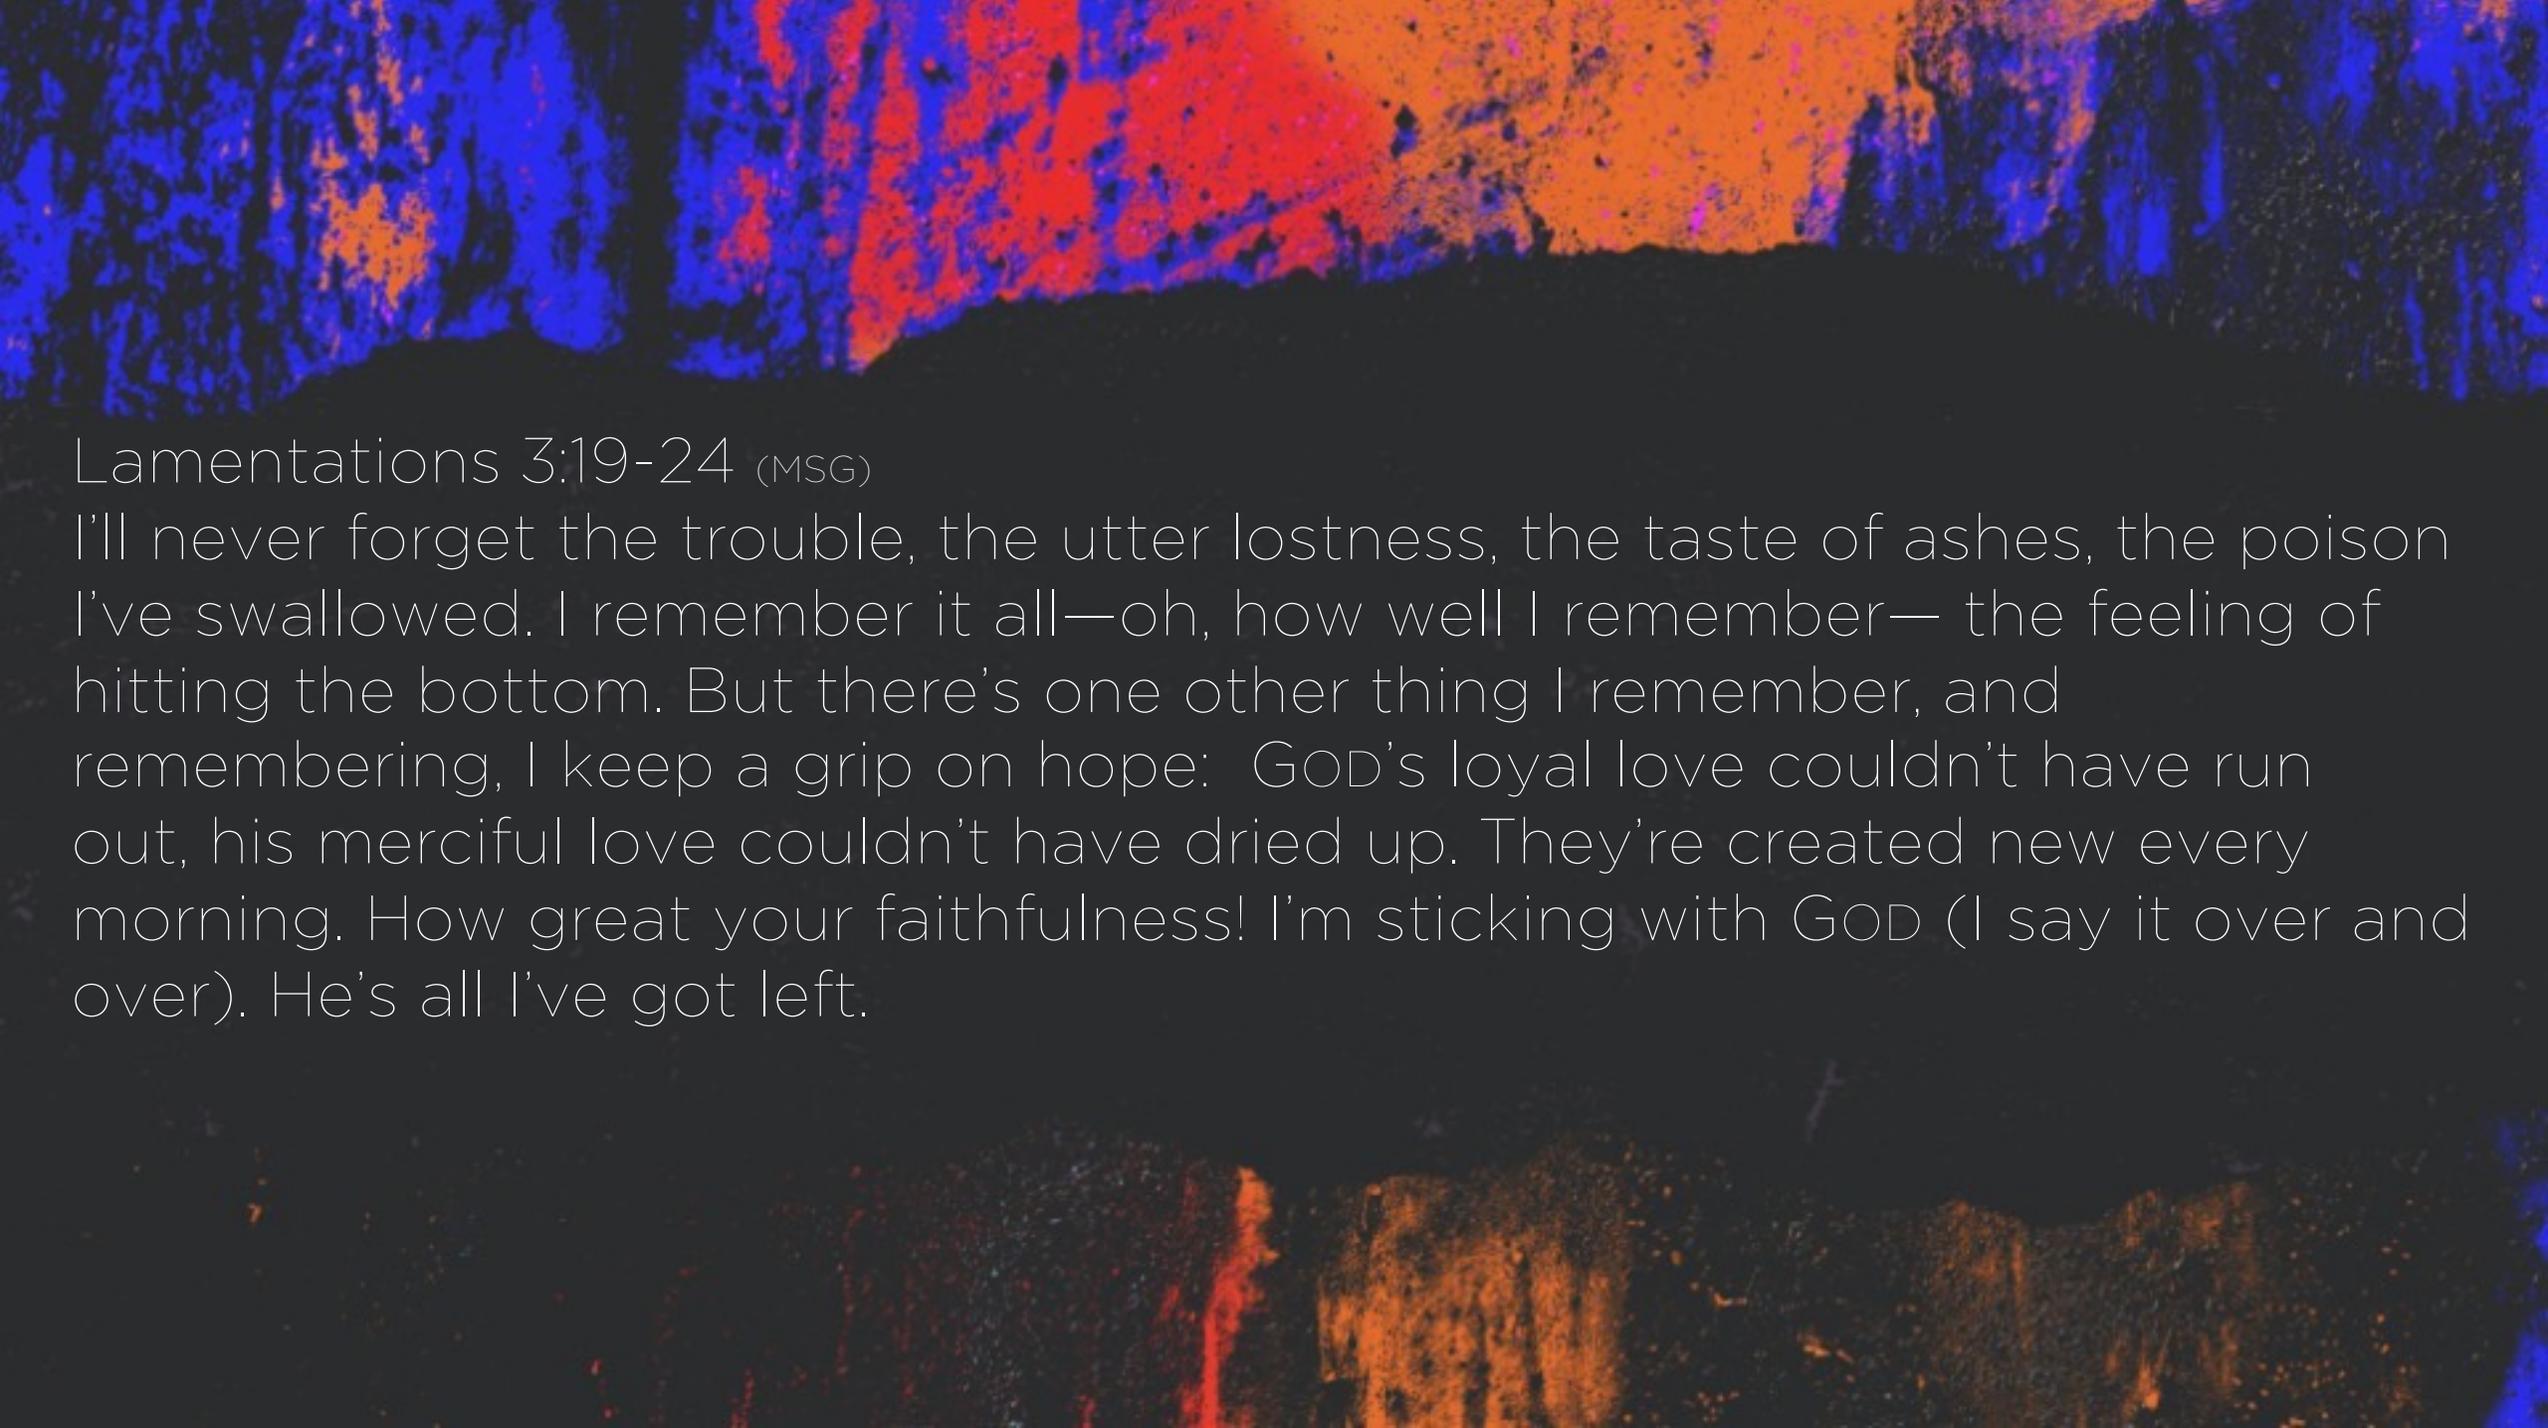

2 Kings 3:13-16 (NKJV)

Then Elisha said to the king of Israel, “What have I to do with you? Go to the prophets of your father and the prophets of your mother.” But the king of Israel said to him, “No, for the LORD has called these three kings together to deliver them into the hand of Moab.” <sup>14</sup> And Elisha said, “As the LORD of hosts lives, before whom I stand, surely were it not that I regard the presence of Jehoshaphat king of Judah, I would not look at you, nor see you. <sup>15</sup> But now bring me a musician.” Then it happened, when the musician played, that the hand of the LORD came upon him. <sup>16</sup> And he said, “Thus says the LORD: ‘Make this valley full of ditches.’”

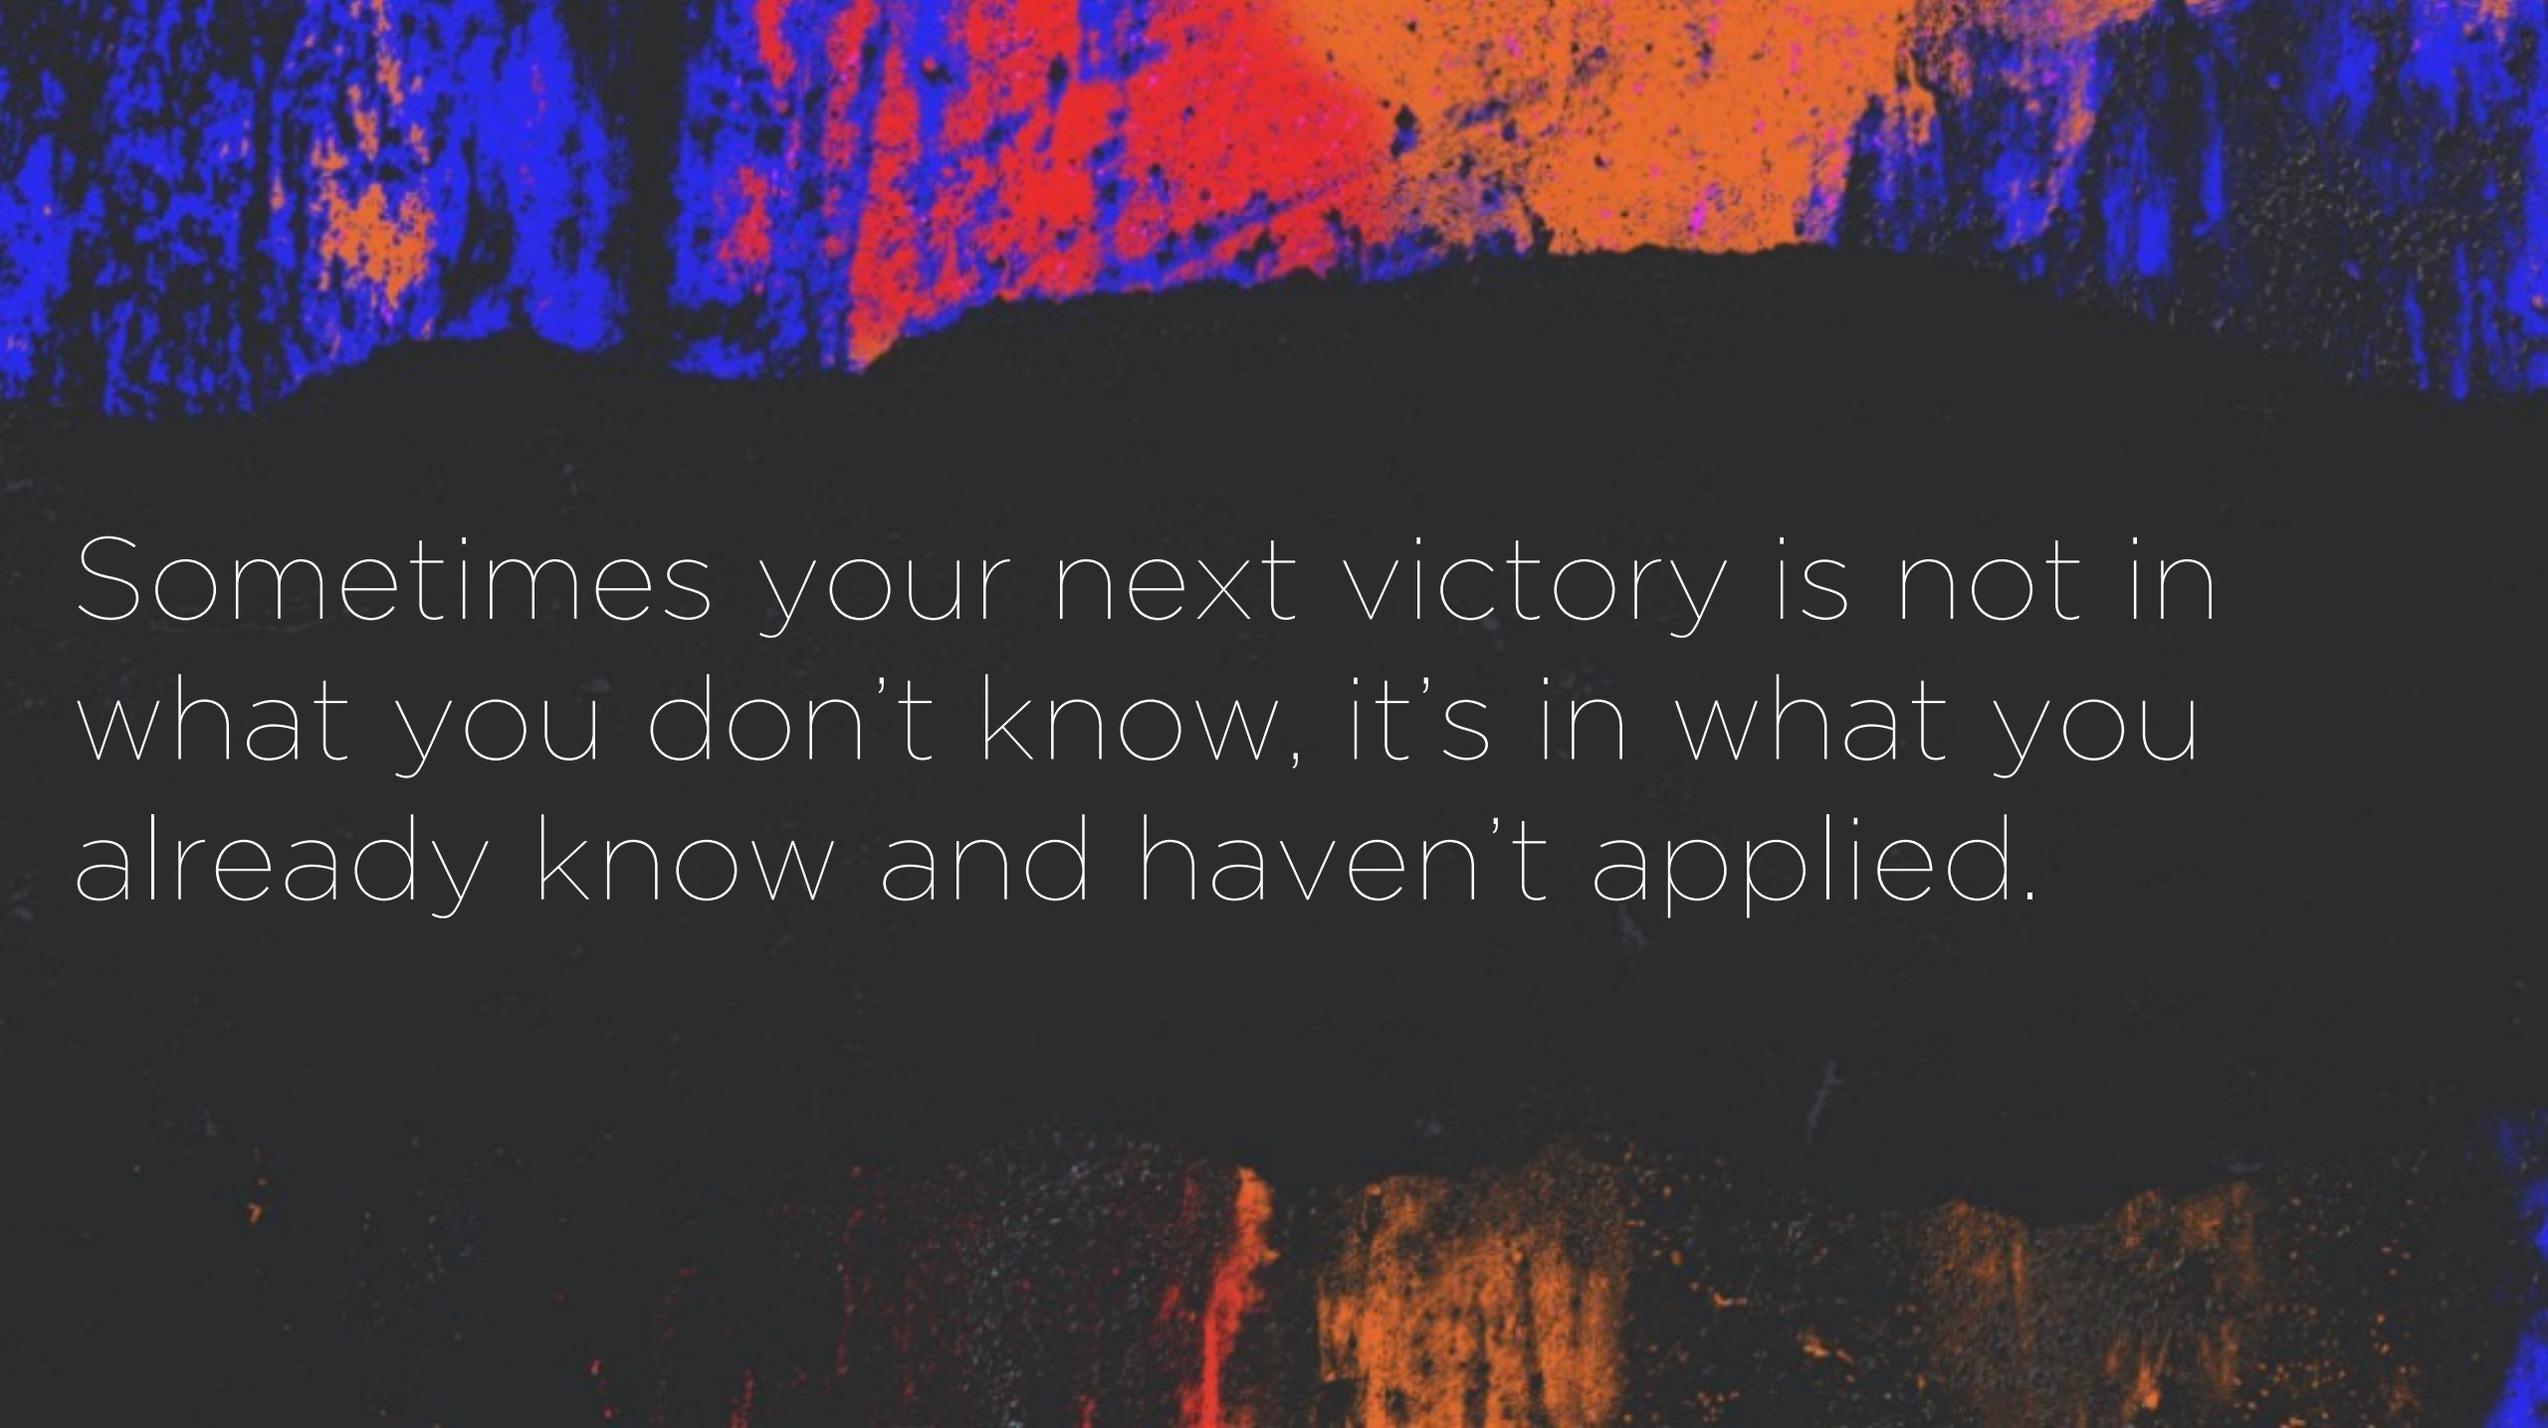

2 Kings 3:17-20 (NKJV)

For thus says the LORD: 'You shall not see wind, nor shall you see rain; yet that valley shall be filled with water, so that you, your cattle, and your animals may drink.' <sup>18</sup> And this is a simple matter in the sight of the LORD; He will also deliver the Moabites into your hand. <sup>19</sup> Also you shall attack every fortified city and every choice city, and shall cut down every good tree, and stop up every spring of water, and ruin every good piece of land with stones."<sup>20</sup> Now it happened in the morning, when the grain offering was offered, that suddenly water came by way of Edom, and the land was filled with water.

Lamentations 3:19-24 (MSG)

I'll never forget the trouble, the utter lostness, the taste of ashes, the poison I've swallowed. I remember it all—oh, how well I remember—the feeling of hitting the bottom. But there's one other thing I remember, and remembering, I keep a grip on hope: GOD's loyal love couldn't have run out, his merciful love couldn't have dried up. They're created new every morning. How great your faithfulness! I'm sticking with GOD (I say it over and over). He's all I've got left.

Sometimes your next victory is not in what you don't know, it's in what you already know and haven't applied.

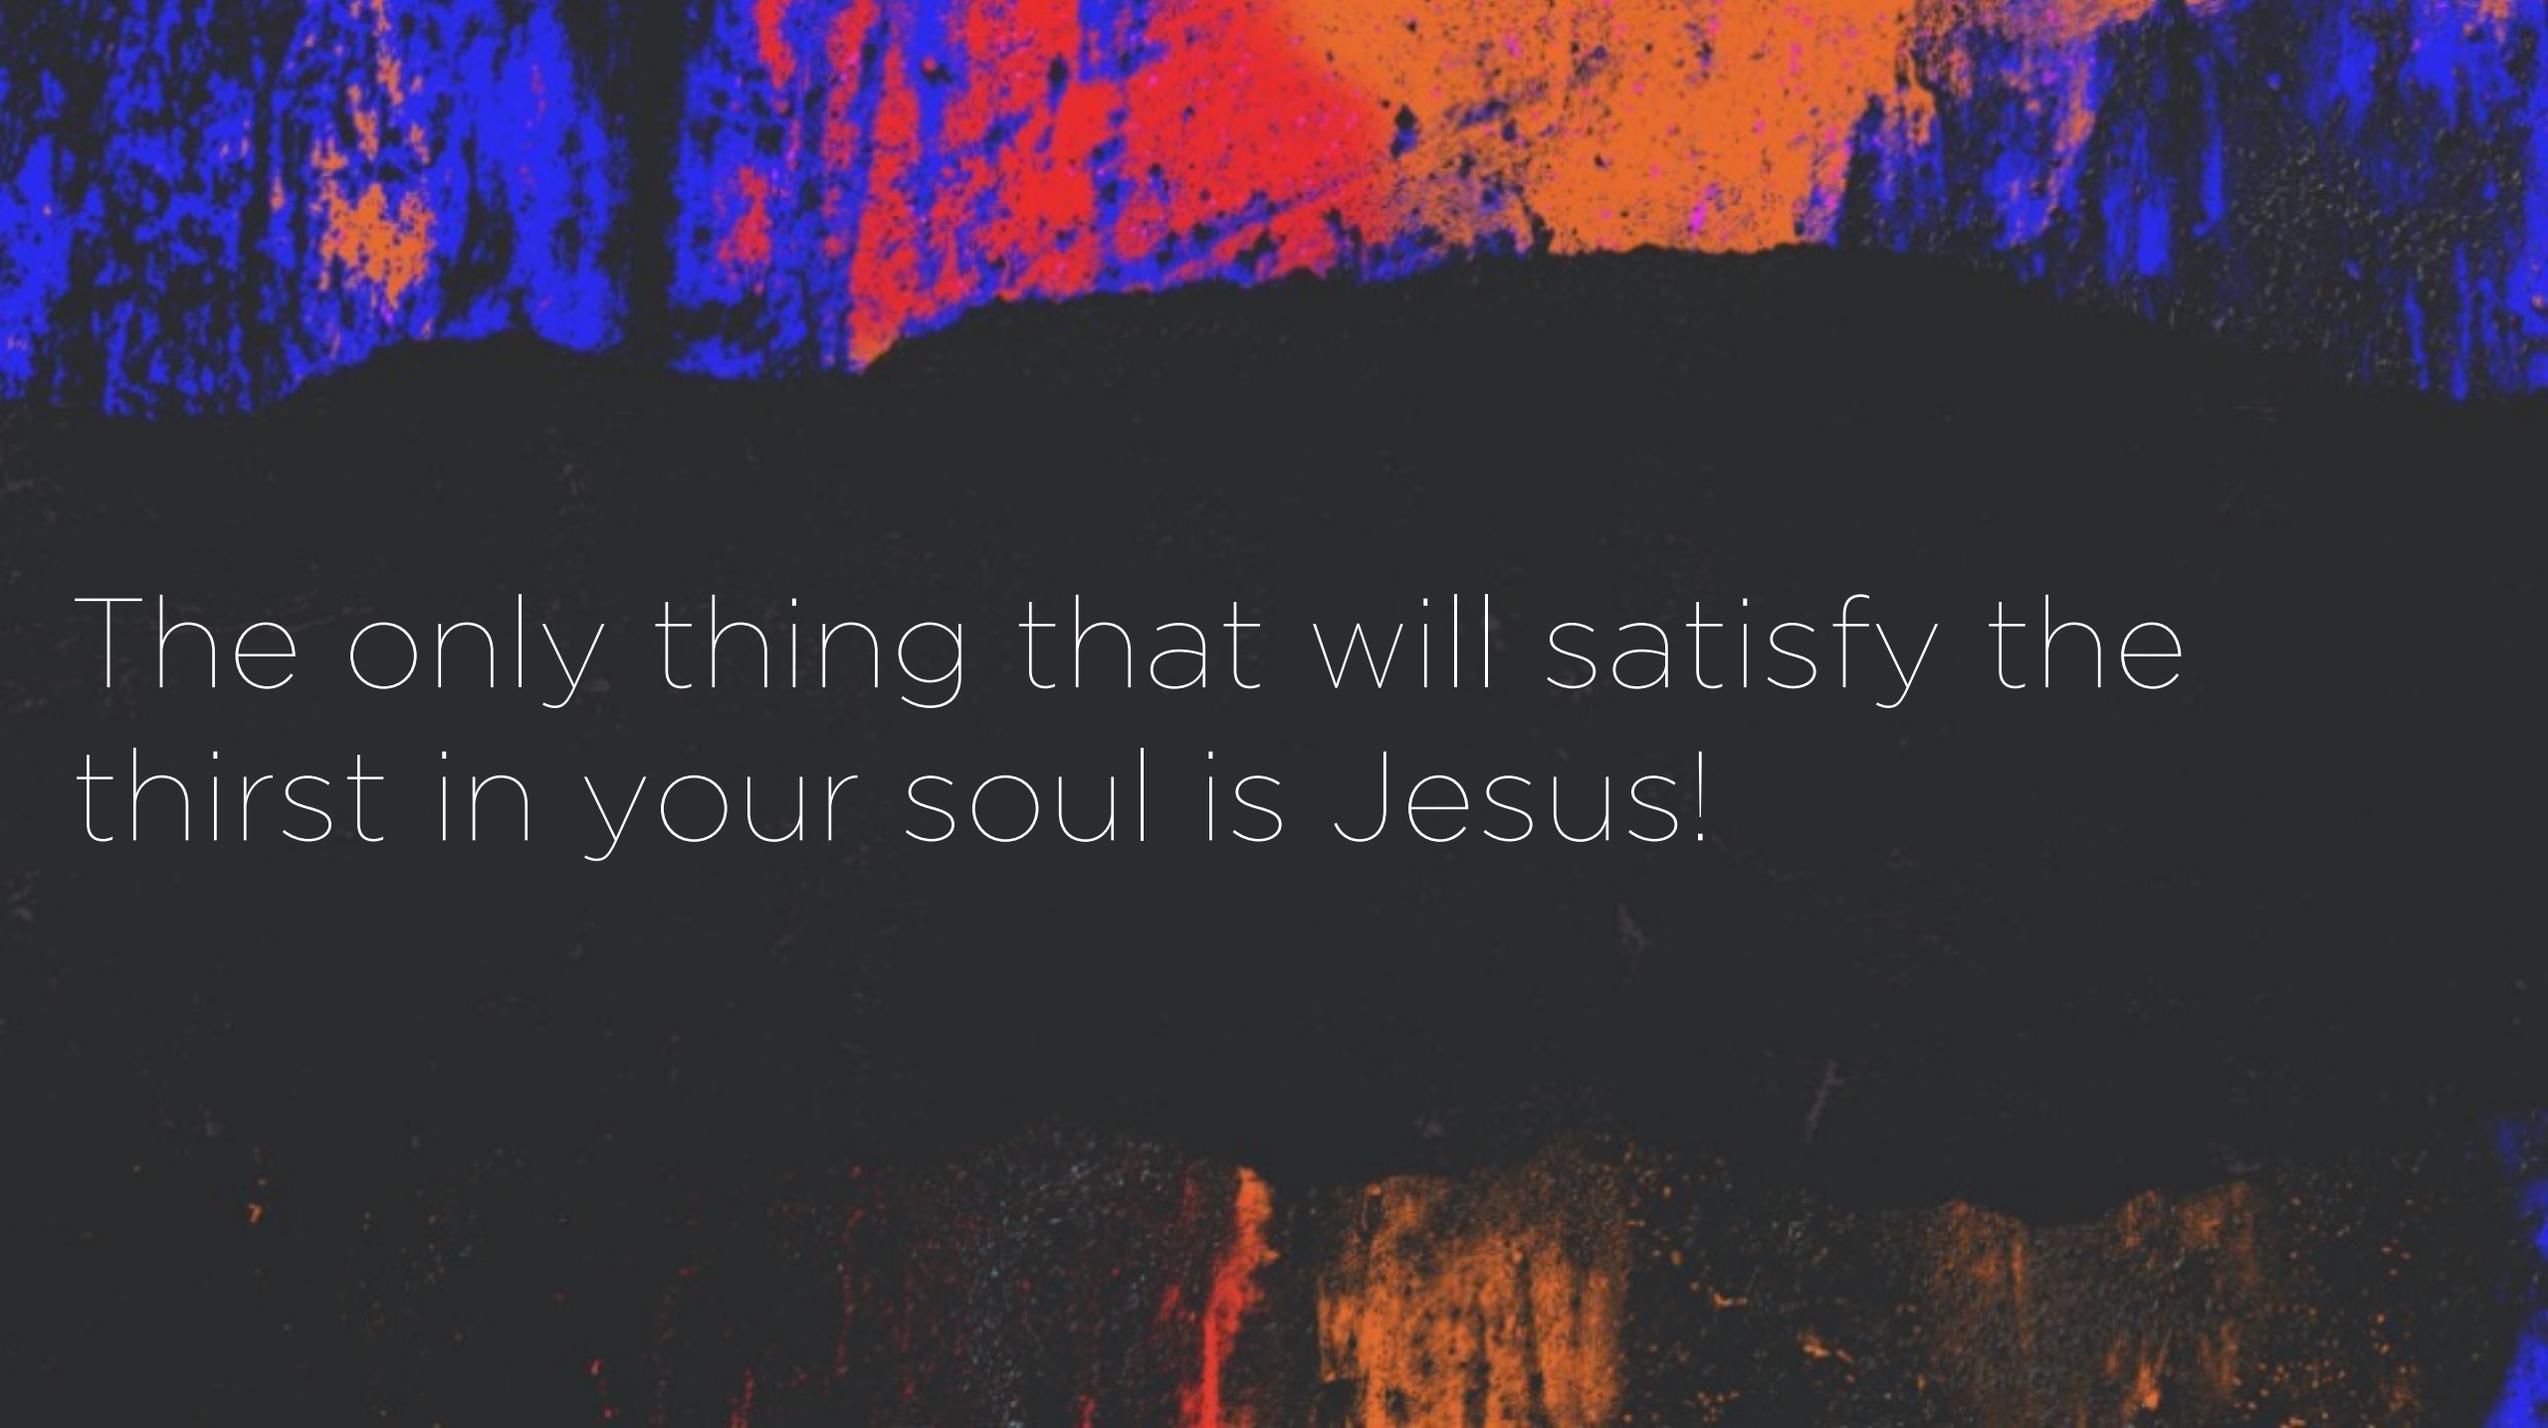

God always fills what He creates.

Don't fight your enemy out of position.

The background is a dark, almost black, textured surface. At the top and bottom edges, there are horizontal bands of color. The top band is a mix of bright blue and orange, while the bottom band is a mix of dark blue and orange. The texture appears to be a rough, possibly stone or wood surface, with some lighter spots and shadows.

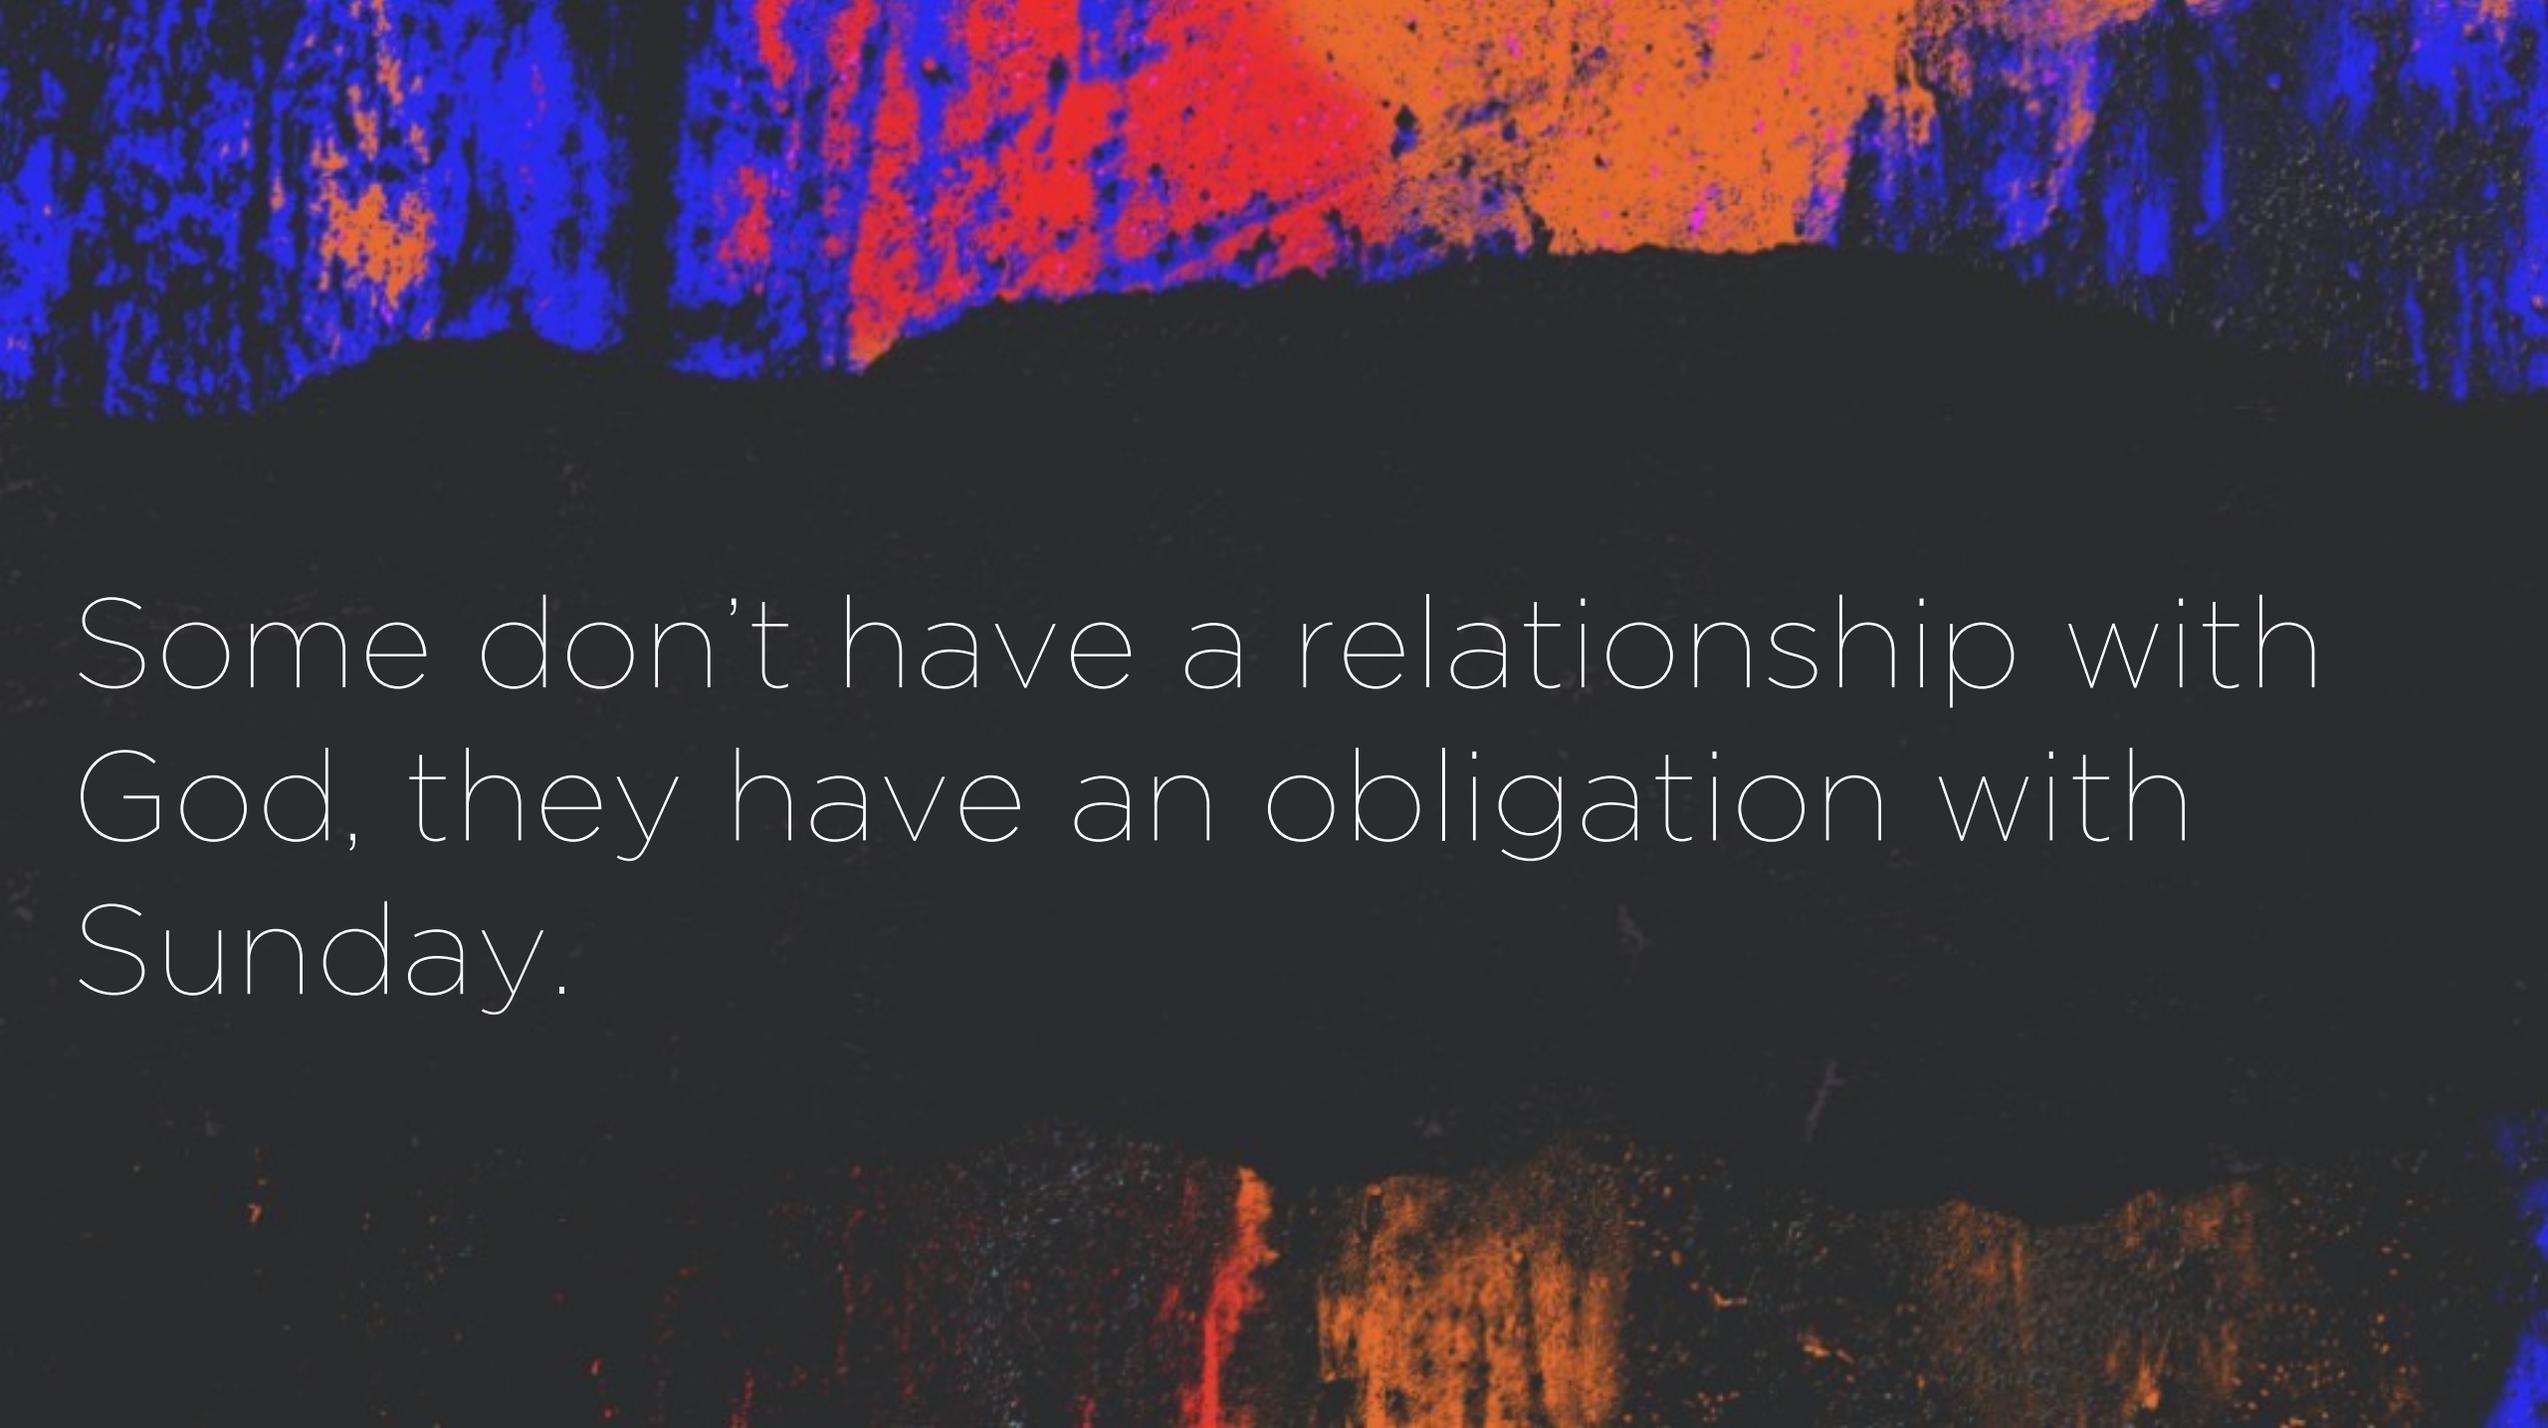

With great faith,
comes great determination.

The rest of the image is in deep shadow, with some faint orange and blue highlights visible in the lower portion.

The only thing that will satisfy the thirst in your soul is Jesus!

Sometimes God will allow you to get thirsty to drive you into desperation!

Some don't have a relationship with God, they have an obligation with Sunday.

He wants to fill all things because He wants to be all things to all people.

The wrong attitude in the right atmosphere can mess up every right atmosphere.

God is giving us an opportunity to dig.

Your capacity of blessing is based on your ability to dig.

What God is about to send is greater than your current capacity can hold.

The question is not:

“Does God have the water?”

The question is “Can I dig the ditch?”
