

Stewarding His Presence

Exodus 3:1-2^{ESV}

Now Moses was keeping the flock of his father-in-law, Jethro, the priest of Midian, and he led his flock to the west side of the wilderness and came to Horeb, the mountain of God. ² And the angel of the LORD appeared to him in a flame of fire out of the midst of a bush. He looked, and behold, the bush was burning, yet it was not consumed.

Exodus 3:3-5_{ESV}

And Moses said, “I will turn aside to see this great sight, why the bush is not burned.” ⁴ When the LORD saw that he turned aside to see, God called to him out of the bush, “Moses, Moses!” And he said, “Here I am.” ⁵ Then he said, “Do not come near; take your sandals off your feet, for the place on which you are standing is holy ground.”

Exodus 3:6-8^{ESV}

And he said, “I am the God of your father, the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob.” And Moses hid his face, for he was afraid to look at God. ⁷ Then the LORD said, “I have surely seen the affliction of my people who are in Egypt and have heard their cry because of their taskmasters. I know their sufferings, ⁸ and I have come down to deliver them out of the hand of the Egyptians and to bring them up out of that land to a good and broad land, a land flowing with milk and honey...

Exodus 3:9-10^{ESV}

And now, behold, the cry of the people of Israel has come to me, and I have also seen the oppression with which the Egyptians oppress them. ¹⁰ Come, I will send you to Pharaoh that you may bring my people, the children of Israel, out of Egypt.”

Exodus 3:3_{ESV}

And Moses said, “I will turn aside to see this great sight, why the bush is not burned.”

What is a Supernatural Encounter for?

A supernatural encounter is an unexpected, divine moment with God's active presence, that always leads to revelation and transformation.

Supernatural encounters always bring about change.

Hebrews 12:26-29_{MSG}

One last shaking, from top to bottom, stem to stern. The phrase “one last shaking” means a thorough housecleaning, getting rid of all the historical and religious junk so that the unshakable essentials stand clear and uncluttered. ²⁸⁻²⁹ Do you see what we’ve got? An unshakable kingdom! And do you see how thankful we must be? Not only thankful, but brimming with worship, deeply reverent before God. For God is not an indifferent bystander. He’s actively cleaning house, torching all that needs to burn, and he won’t quit until it’s all cleansed. God himself is Fire!

What goes in the fire cannot come out unchanged.

A Supernatural Encounter is God's Demonstration.

Exodus 3:4_{ESV}

When the LORD saw that he turned aside to see, God called to him out of the bush, “Moses, Moses!” And he said, “Here I am.”

You were not sent to the desert to be destroyed,
but to be developed.

God showed up supernaturally, in the middle of natural responsibility.

Faithfulness doesn't consult with feelings before showing up.

Demonstrations require Participation.

Real encounters with God produce holiness.
