

“Come up higher and change your perspective of worship Pt 2”

Presence Is the Reward

“Here’s the one thing I crave from God, the one thing I seek above all else: I want the privilege of living with Him every moment in His house, finding the sweet loveliness of His face, filled with awe, delighting in His glory and grace.”

— Psalm 27:4 (TPT)

We often approach worship believing it is the doorway to something else.

Peace.

Breakthrough.

Clarity.

Provision.

And while The Father lovingly meets us, He was never meant to be the means—He is the end.

When presence becomes the reward, worship is no longer anxious.

It becomes restful.

“Worship is not for the atmosphere. True worship is for Jesus—the atmosphere is the byproduct.”

The Father is not waiting to be persuaded.

He is not moved by technique or volume or effort.

“You don’t have to beg God to come.”

When worship is about being with Him, urgency dissolves.

Striving ceases.

Performance loses its grip.

You are already invited.

Today’s Invitation

Today, worship with no agenda.

No pressure to feel anything.

No pressure to say anything right. Simply stay.
