Great Story of God The Great Rescue Micah 4:6-10; 7:8-9

Study Context

The people fall into rebellion and are exiled from the land to be slaves to foreign nations. Understanding the Great Rescue acknowledges that we cannot by our strength rescue ourselves. Yet, out of the kindness of God, He promises rescue. His salvation is our sanctification to live a life that would honor Him above all others. His rescue reveals His character, a God of compassion and delights in steadfast love for His people. His Great Rescue continues to be a theme throughout the Scriptures from the enslavement of Egypt, the rescue by the judges, and ultimately through the life-blood sacrifice of His own Son, Jesus.

Passages

"In that day, declares the Lord, I will assemble the lame and gather those who have been driven away and those whom I have afflicted; and the lame I will make the remnant, and those who were cast off, a strong nation; and the Lord will reign over them in Mount Zion from this time forth and forevermore. And you, O tower of the flock, hill of the daughter of Zion, to you shall it come, the former dominion shall come, kingship for the daughter of Jerusalem. Now why do you cry aloud? Is there no king in you? Has your counselor perished, that pain seized you like a woman in labor? Writhe and groan, O daughter of Zion, like a woman in labor, for now you shall go out from the city and dwell in the open country; you shall go to Babylon. There you shall be rescued; there the Lord will redeem you from the hand of your enemies." – Micah 4:6-10 (ESV)

"Rejoice not over me, O my enemy; when I fall, I shall rise; when I sit in darkness, the Lord will be a light to me. I will bear the indignation of the Lord because I have sinned against him, until he pleads my cause and executes judgment for me. He will bring me out to the light; I shall look upon his vindication." – Micah 7:8-9
