How Do I Know I'm In God's Will?

Daniel Harrison | October 10th, 2021

1. When you think about your current job, are you satisfied or dissatisfied? Why?

2. Read Matthew 21:28-32.

How are the two sons contrasted in this passage?

3. What good news do we learn about the first son who initially rebels, but later repents and changes his mind?

4. The example of the second son teaches us we can be "religious" outwardly, but not be genuinely close to God spiritually. How might "cultural Christianity" compromise our spiritual health and affect the world around us?

5. Dallas Willard, states in Hearing God,

"Generally, we are in God's will whenever we are leading the kind of life he wants for us.... An obsession merely with doing all God commands may be the very thing that rules out being the kind of person that he calls us to be."

How might this alter our perspective on God's will for our lives?

6. How might you posture your daily rhythm in a way that forms you spiritually?
