

The King Is Coming

Introduction

I would like to thank Pastor Ben for the opportunity to bring the Word today. This day means a lot to me because it is the first Sunday I have ever preached at Mundo de Fe McKinney. My name is Kris, and I have the honor of leading our youth ministry. I graduated from Christ for the Nations in December 2024, and I serve in many areas of ministry, especially with our youth and young adults.

As I prepared for today, I thought about the hardships and heaviness of life. I came to the conclusion that it is only by the goodness of God that I am standing here today. The only reason you and I are here is because of His love and grace. You matter to Him.

1. The Day of the Lord Is Coming

2. Take Heart and Prepare the Way

3. Surrendered in the Waiting

1. The Day of the Lord Is Coming

Scripture: 2 Peter 3

Jesus Christ is coming back, and He is coming for His people. The beautiful truth is that He has not forgotten us. We are living in a world that grows increasingly corrupt and self-centered, yet God's promise remains the same. His patience is not weakness; it is mercy. He desires that all would come to repentance.

Personal testimonies remind us that eternity is real. God continues to warn, call, and draw people to Himself. The question is not whether Jesus is coming back. The question is: Are we ready?

2. Take Heart and Prepare the Way

Scripture: Matthew 3; Matthew 16:24

John the Baptist prepared the way for Jesus. He lived a life of surrender and obedience. God is still looking for men and women who will do the will of the Father.

It is not enough to simply attend church and hear a good message. Jesus calls us to deny ourselves, take up our cross, and follow Him. Advancement in the Kingdom requires preparation. God is looking for a generation that will say, "Lord, have Your way in my life."

3. Surrendered in the Waiting

Scripture: Philippians 1:6; 1 Peter 2:9

There is life, hope, forgiveness, purpose, and freedom in Jesus Christ. God does not stop being good because life becomes difficult. He is faithful and true to His Word.

Revival begins when God's people return to Him. We must surrender fear, anxiety, pain, unforgiveness, and unrepented sin. Just like a box becomes heavier as more weight is added, our spiritual lives become burdened when we carry things God never intended us to carry.

Come to God as you are. The exhaustion of life is satisfied only in the presence of Christ. What Jesus accomplished on the cross is enough.

Conclusion and Altar Call

An alarm warns us when danger is near. In the same way, God is sounding an alarm to His people. No one knows the day or the hour of Christ's return, but He is giving us time to repent, surrender, and follow Him.

Today is a call to repentance, obedience, and surrender. Jesus is coming. Let us be ready.
