

Genesis 1:3-5

Last week...

Question from last week asking when was the first date told in Scripture...

Genesis 7:11-Noah and the flood

Exodus 12 marks Passover as the beginning of a new year for Israel as a new nation.

There are no "years" given in early, ancient history. Only months, days, and many times life of kings and countries to line up with archaeology, ancient manuscripts, and other historical evidence.

Jesus as Creator

Last week-John 1, Colossians 1, I Corinthians 8:6

Today-Hebrews 1, John 17:5

All of Triunity actively involved in creation creating everything from nothing by His spoken word.

Understanding God before Creation from last week

Exodus 20:11 CSB-literal 6 days of creation and 1 day of rest= the number 7

The rhythm and repetition of every week is a reminder even today.

[11] For the LORD made the heavens and the earth, the sea, and everything in them in six days; then he rested on the seventh day. Therefore the LORD blessed the Sabbath day and declared it holy.

1:1-1-2

An overview before details given (simple but important point that has led to much confusion)

Genesis 1:3-5 CSB

3] Then God said, "Let there be light," and there was light.

[6] For God who said, "Let light shine out of darkness," has shone in our hearts to give the light of the knowledge of God's glory in the face of Jesus Christ. [7] Now we have this treasure in clay jars, so that this extraordinary power may be from God and not from us.
