

Christianity and Money

Sticky Series

Discussion Questions

1. Why is money a sticky topic?
2. How was money talked about and used in your family growing up?
3. Read 1 Timothy 6:6-10. What stands out to you about this passage?
4. Why is it easy to believe that your money belongs to you?
5. How can believing that your money belongs to you lead to pride and judging others? How does believing it belongs to God lead to gratitude?
6. What does it look like when someone believes the Untruth of Purpose, which says, "My money is meant to meet my needs and make me happy"?
7. How does this look in your life?
8. What does it mean that the purpose of your money is to be used to worship God?
9. How is generosity related to worship? Would you consider yourself a generous person?
10. Do you find yourself believing the Untruth of Identity that says, "My money gives me value and love"?
11. What are some subtle ways you treat people with less or more money differently?
12. What does it mean to find your value and love in Jesus alone?
13. How does the gospel reshape and replace your beliefs about money?