

How to Read the Bible Well (Luke 24:13-47)

Good Read Series (Message 3)

Discussion Questions

- What is your favorite genre of books to read? (or if not a reader, movie to watch)
- Give an example of having the wrong approach to reading different genres (i.e. reading a training manual and hoping for a mysterious twist in the story)
- This week's sermon was about having the right approach to reading the Bible and started by looking at how Jesus read the Bible. Read the account of Jesus on the road to Emmaus— Luke 24:13-27.
 - How did Jesus read the Bible?
 - What does it mean that “he interpreted to them in all the Scriptures the things concerning himself?”
- Read Luke 24:44-47
 - What is the repeated instruction in v. 44 from v. 27?
 - How did Jesus open their minds to the Scriptures?
 - Summarize the good news of the gospel from v. 46-47.
- Help me fill in the blanks from Sunday's sermon:
The Bible is one _____
About the _____ of God,
Through the _____ of God
For the _____ of God,
To the _____ of God.
- How does this statement help you approach the Bible and read it well?
- What are some examples of wrong ways people approach the Bible?
 - Divine Rule Book
 - Theological Dictionary
 - Road Map for Life
- How do these wrong approaches lead to a misunderstanding and misinterpretation of the Bible?
- Working together to identify the 9 Frames of the Storyline of the Bible
 - Creation >> Fall >> Patriarchs >> Exodus >> Rulers >> Exile >> Gospel >> Church >> New Creation
- How do you find your place in the STORY God is telling?