

“Are Faith and Science Opposed?”

Asking for a Friend Series

Discussion Questions

1. If God is the author of the books his Word and the World, do you believe that there is always harmony between the two?
2. If conflict does not live between the Word and the World, then it must live in our interpretations of those things (hermeneutics and science). Share examples of ways you’ve experienced conflict in the following places:
 - a. When the wrong interpretation tool is used in the wrong place
 - b. Bad hermeneutics
 - c. Bad science
3. How can our brokenness create conflict between faith and science, even when we encounter accurate interpretations of the Word and World through hermeneutics and science?
4. Read Hebrews 1:3. Why do we believe that Jesus is the point of the Bible?
 - a. How should faith in Jesus change and work in our brokenness?
5. What aspects of the “path forward” do you need to take to heart?
 - a. Humility
 - b. Work
 - c. Worship
6. How can this series, and what you’re learning, help you reach your Top 5?
