EPHESIANS 4.16 He makes the whole body fit together perfectly. As each part does its own special work, it helps the other parts grow, so that the whole body is healthy and growing and full of love.

Raise the risk: sit, listen, go or sit, stay, serve. Come an hour and serve an hour.

EPHESIANS 4.4-7 For there is one body and one Spirit, just as you have been called to one glorious hope for the future.⁵ There is one Lord, one faith, one baptism,⁶ one God and Father of all, who is over all, in all, and living through all.⁷ However, He has given each one of us a special gift through the generosity of Christ.

1 CORINTHIANS 12.12,13 The human body has many parts, but the many parts make up one whole body. So it is with the body of Christ.¹³ Some of us are Jews, some are Gentiles, some are slaves, and some are free. But we have all been baptized into one body by one Spirit, and we all share the same Spirit.

Exercising our spiritual gift is not about:

COMPETITION – “I’m doing more than you.”

COMPARISON – “My gift is more important than yours.”

RICK VESTNYS

Give me eyes to see the invisible, Give me ears to hear Your voice.

Give me faith to believe the impossible, And strength to make the choice.

To follow You when I can go no further, To hear Your voice and quietly obey.

To go on when others only murmur, To stand steadfast in Your ways.

Father of faith, give me vision, Savior of strength, keep me strong.

Spirit of love, be my devotion, That I may carry on.

Dear God, I know that I am on the wrong path. I admit that I am a sinner on the road headed away from You. I want to turn around and journey with You on the road to eternal life. I know that I cannot do that by myself. I know that You sent Your Son, Jesus Christ, to die for my sins. Right now, I trust in Jesus as the only One who can provide true life, the life that is found in You. I trust in Jesus as the One who did for me what I cannot do for myself. I trust in Jesus as the only One who can place me in an eternal relationship with You. In Jesus' Name. Amen.
